ARTHUR BROWN

LB • 2011-12
Wichita, Kan. • Wichita East HS

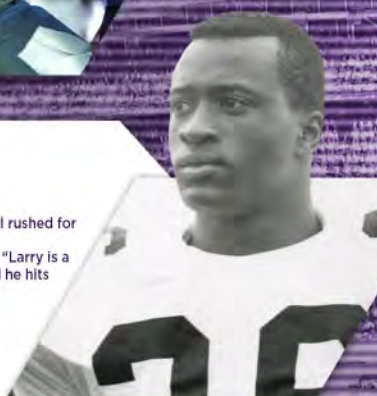

- 2012 First Team All-American by the Football Writers Association of America and a second-team selection by the AP, Walter Camp, Sports Illustrated and CBS Sports.
- 2012 Lott IMPACT Trophy finalist and Bednarik Award semifinalist.
- 2012 Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year.
- 2011 Third Team All-American by Phil Steele and Honorable Mention All-American by Sports Illustrated.
- 2011 Big 12 Defensive Newcomer of the Year.
- 2011-12 First Team All-Big 12.
- Led team in tackles in both 2011 (101) and 2012 (100).

LARRY BROWN

RB • 1967-68
Pittsburgh, Pa. • Lee HS

- Served primarily as a blocking back throughout his career, but still rushed for 402 yards on 111 carries in 1968.
- Was so dominant as a blocker and rusher that one pro scout said, "Larry is a real contact player. I watched him run and block all afternoon and he hits hard on every play. He's not afraid to stick his head in there."
- Went to play eight seasons in the NFL, all with Washington.
- Was selected as the 1972 NFL MVP by the Associated Press, UPI, Newspaper Enterprise Association and Sporting News.
- Helped Washington to an appearance in Super Bowl VII.
- Led the league in rushing in 1970 with 1,125 yards.

DARREN HOWARD

DE • 1996-99
St. Petersburg, Fla. • Boca Ciega HS

- 1999 Third Team All-American by the Associated Press.
- 1998-99 First Team All-Big 12, while he earned second-team honors in 1997.
- 1999 Holiday Bowl Defensive MVP.
- Led the Big 12 in 1998 with 10.5 sacks in addition to ranking sixth in the league with 17 tackles for loss.
- Finished third in the Big 12 in sacks in 1997 with 11.0.
- Was selected in the second round of the 2000 NFL Draft by the New Orleans Saints.
- Played 10 seasons in the NFL with New Orleans (2000-05) and Philadelphia (2006-09).

COLLIN KLEIN

QB • 2009-12
Loveland, Colo. • Loveland HS

- 2012 Heisman Trophy Finalist and Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award winner.
- Also a finalist for the 2012 Maxwell Award, Walter Camp Award and Davey O'Brien Award.
- 2012 All-American by Walter Camp, Sports Illustrated and CBS Sports.
- 2012 Big 12 Offensive Player of the Year.
- Left with 34 career, season or single-game school records.
- Broke the FBS record for rushing TDs by a QB in consecutive seasons.
- Set a new FBS record by a quarterback with 27 rushing TDs in 2011.
- Has served as K-State's quarterbacks coach since 2016 and was promoted to offensive coordinator in January 2022.

TYLER LOCKETT

WR • 2011-14
Tulsa, Okla. • Booker T. Washington HS

- 2014 Consensus All-American after earning first-team honors from six outlets.
- A semifinalist for the 2014 Biletnikoff Award.
- A four-time All-Big 12 honoree, including first-team accolades as a freshman, junior and senior.
- 2013 and 2014 Big 12 Special Teams Player of the Year.
- Currently holds 15 school records.
- Totaled a school-record 440 all-purpose yards against Oklahoma in 2014, a mark that ranks seventh in NCAA history.
- Entering his eighth NFL season, all with Seattle.
- An All-Pro selection in 2015, 2016 and 2017.

ELL ROBERSON

QB • 2000-03
Baytown, Texas • Lee HS

- 2003 All-American.
- 2001-03 All-Big 12.
- 2002 Holiday Bowl MVP.
- Led the 2003 Wildcats to their first Big 12 Championship with a 35-7 victory over No. 1 Oklahoma.
- Holds 10 school records, including single-season touchdown passes when he tossed 24 in 2003.
- Set a K-State record for total offense in 2003 (7,917 yards).
- Was the first player in Big 12 history with 5,000 passing yards and 2,000 rushing yards in a career.

A new tradition was born in 2002 as the football program announced the inaugural Ring of Honor class. The honor was developed to recognize those who have distinguished themselves on and off the football field at the highest level. The inaugural class in 2002 consisted of six players, while four more were inducted in both 2008 and 2015. This season, a new class of six players will be immortalized in K-State Football glory. The exclusive 20-member fraternity have their names displayed on the east side upper deck, on a unique ring display in the West Stadium Center concourse and have their jerseys displayed near the entrance of the Vanier Family Football Complex.

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR/QB

COLLIN KLEIN

NINTH YEAR IN COACHING • EIGHTH YEAR AT K-STATE

- Promoted to offensive coordinator in January 2022.
- Served as interim offensive coordinator when the Wildcats put up 42 points in a win over LSU in the Texas Bowl.
- Tutored Skylar Thompson to All-Big 12 honors in 2019, the first Wildcat signal caller to earn all-conference honors since 2014.
- Thompson was selected in the 2022 NFL Draft by Miami.
- Coached quarterbacks at Northern Iowa in 2016.
- A 2012 Heisman Trophy finalist and one of the greatest quarterbacks to ever don a Kansas State uniform.
- Will be inducted into the K-State Football Ring of Honor in 2022.

OFFENSIVE LINE CONOR RILEY

20TH YEAR IN COACHING • FOURTH YEAR AT K-STATE

- Has produced eight All-Big 12 honorees in his first three seasons, including 2021 First Team All-Big 12 selection Cooper Beebe.
- Tutored at least three All-Big 12 linemen in two of his first three seasons.
- Helped the 2021 Wildcats rank third in school history with 6.1 yards per play, while they were sixth with 4.83 rushing yards per carry.
- Coached up four All-Big 12 linemen in 2019, the most by the Wildcats since 2012.
- The 2019 line paved the way for 178.0 rushing yards per game to rank fourth in the Big 12.
- Coached players to nine All-America honors at NDSU.

RUNNING BACKS BRIAN ANDERSON

28TH YEAR IN COACHING • FOURTH YEAR AT K-STATE

- Has tutored K-State running backs to three All-Big 12 honors, including 2021 Consensus All-American Deuce Vaughn.
- Vaughn was one of three players in the country with at least 1,000 rushing yards and 400 receiving yards in 2021.
- Anderson coached Vaughn to a No. 4 national ranking in total TDs, while he was in the top 10 in four other categories.
- In 2020, Vaughn broke three K-State freshman records and was named the 247Sports True Freshman of the Year.
- Anderson coached transfer James Gilbert to 2019 All-Big 12 honors.
- Coached previously in the state at Highland and Coffeyville CC.

WIDE RECEIVERS THAD WARD

21ST YEAR IN COACHING • FIRST YEAR AT K-STATE

- Came to Manhattan after working the last three seasons at Temple as the wide receivers coach and pass game coordinator.
- Coached Jadan Blue to a pair of All-AAC honors, including the 2019 season when Blue set the school record for catches and yards.
- Coached running backs for three seasons at Illinois.
- Worked with the wide receivers at Northern Illinois from 2013 to 2015, as he was instrumental in tutoring future NFL players Kenny Golladay, Tommy Lee Lewis and Da'Ron Brown.
- Has been a part of five bowl teams, including three at NIU.
- Played wide receiver at UCF after two seasons at Coffeyville CC.

FULLBACKS/TIGHT ENDS BRIAN LEPAK

NINTH YEAR IN COACHING • SECOND YEAR AT K-STATE

- Promoted to a full-time assistant coach after serving the 2021 season at K-State as a Senior Offensive Quality Control coach.
- Coached the Wildcat fullbacks and tight ends in K-State's 42-20 victory over LSU in the Texas Bowl.
- Came to K-State after serving one year as the run game coordinator and offensive line coach at Southern.
- Spent three seasons as a graduate assistant at Oklahoma, helping the Sooners earn 12-win seasons, Big 12 Championships and New Year Six bowl appearances each year.
- Played offensive line at Colorado State and Oklahoma.

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR/SAFETIES

JOE KLANDERMAN

21ST YEAR IN COACHING • FOURTH YEAR AT K-STATE

- Entering his fourth season at K-State and his third as defensive coordinator.
- Spearheaded a complete overhaul of the K-State defense prior to the 2021 season, moving from a four-man front to a three-man front.
- In 2021, the Wildcats trimmed 11.2 points per game allowed from 2020, as their 21.0 points allowed per game was the best mark since 2003.
- The 2021 Wildcats also allowed their fewest yards per game since 2009, and their 129.5 rushing yards allowed was the best in four years.
- Helped the 2021 K-State defense accumulate nine All-Big 12 honors.
- Has coached safeties since his arrival in 2019, tutoring at least one All-Big 12 safety each season.

ASSISTANT HEAD COACH/CORNERBACKS

VAN MALONE

24TH YEAR IN COACHING • FOURTH YEAR AT K-STATE

- In his fourth season at K-State and third as assistant head coach and pass game coordinator.
- Coached transfer Julius Brents to All-Big 12 honors in his first year at K-State in 2021.
- Opposite Brents, Ekow Boye-Doe played at an All-Big 12 level as teams only targeted his receiver 40 times over 13 games.
- Tutored AJ Parker to all-conference honors in 2019 as Parker went on to start seven games in 2021 as a rookie for the Detroit Lions.
- Was an All-American defensive back at Texas before spending four seasons with the Detroit Lions.

DEFENSIVE ENDS

BUDDY WYATT

32ND YEAR IN COACHING • FOURTH YEAR AT K-STATE

- Helped the K-State defense collect 90 tackles for loss in 2021, the most since 2006 and the 10th most in school history.
- Tutored Felix Anudike-Uzomah to Big 12 Defensive Lineman of the Year and All-America honors.
- Under Wyatt's direction, Anudike-Uzomah tied for the national lead in forced fumbles per game and ranked 11th in sacks per game.
- Coached Wyatt Hubert and Reggie Walker to All-Big 12 honors in 2019.
- Hubert came back to earn All-Big 12 honors again in 2020 and was drafted in 2021 by the Cincinnati Bengals.
- Has worked at schools in the Big 12, SEC, Big Ten and AAC.

LINEBACKERS

STEVE STANARD

35TH YEAR IN COACHING • THIRD YEAR AT K-STATE

- Coached both of his starting linebackers to All-Big 12 honors in 2021 as Daniel Green (89) and Cody Fletcher (75) ranked first and second on the team in tackles.
- Green ranked 22nd in the nation and fourth in the Big 12 in solo tackles per game (5.3), while he led the team with 16.0 tackles for loss.
- Also tutored All-Big 12 performer Elijah Sullivan in 2020.
- Has served as a defensive coordinator at six different schools, totaling 20 years of service.
- Began his coaching career after his playing days at Nebraska, and he crossed paths with Chris Klieman at NDSU in 2012 and 2013.

DEFENSIVE TACKLES

MIKE TUIASOSOPO

31ST YEAR IN COACHING • FOURTH YEAR AT K-STATE

- Coached Eli Huggins to his first All-Big 12 honor in 2021 after setting new career highs in sacks (3.0) and tackles for loss (6.0).
- It was the second-straight year Tuiasosopo tutored an all-conference defensive tackle after Drew Wiley earned the nod in 2020.
- Helped the 2020 Wildcats rank fourth in the Big 12 and 24th in the nation in sacks.
- Has been a part of 11 bowl game appearances and four conference championships.
- Has coached primarily on the west coast, spending time at USC, UCLA, Arizona and Utah among other stops.

2022 TEAM NOTES

CATS ANTICIPATE MOMENTUM BUILDING SEASON IN 2022

• Following an eight-win season that was capped with a convincing 42-20 victory over LSU in the TaxAct Texas Bowl, Kansas State will look to build on the momentum generated last season as the Wildcats open the 127th season in school history at home on September 3 against South Dakota.

• Kansas State boasts 43 letterwinners, which includes 16 players that started at least four games and 10 that earned All-Big 12 honors a year ago.

• Included in that group are three All-Americans in defensive end Felix Anudike-Uzomah, wide receiver/kick returner Malik Knowles and running back Deuce Vaughn. Vaughn became the 11th Consensus All-American in school history when he earned the nod last season.

• The Wildcats also welcome in eight Division I transfers, which includes quarterback Adrian Martinez, who started four seasons at Nebraska.

A WINNING TRADITION

• Kansas State has been one of the best Big 12 teams since the inception of the conference in 1996. The Wildcats are third with 126 victories, trailing only Oklahoma and Texas.

• The Wildcats also rank third in the conference in winning percentage since round-robin play began in 2011. They sit at 57.6% (57-42), trailing only Oklahoma (81.6%; 80-18) and Oklahoma State (66.7%; 66-33).

• During that stretch, the Wildcats are 32-18 (64.0%) at home in Big 12 play and 25-24 (51.0%) on the road.

ALL-TIME BIG 12 WINS

Rk.	School	Wins
1.	Oklahoma	166
2.	Texas	143
3.	K-State	126
4.	Oklahoma State	121
5.	Texas Tech	102

RENEWING AN OLD RIVALRY

• Kansas State will take on an old conference foe in its second non-conference matchup of 2022, as the Wildcats welcome Missouri into Bill Snyder Family Stadium on September 10.

• The Wildcats and Tigers will meet for the 97th time in series history but the first in a non-conference matchup.

• K-State won 14 of the final 19 contests before the Tigers left for the SEC, including eight of the last 10 in Manhattan.

• The teams will play in Columbia on September 16, 2023.

SUPER SENIORS

• Kansas State has six players who will be returning to use an extra year of eligibility and are seniors again in 2022 as the NCAA froze eligibility clocks during the 2020 season due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

• Those returning to the Wildcats for a second senior season are offensive lineman Dawson Delforge, nose guards Robert Hentz II and Eli Huggins, safety Cincere Mason, wide receiver Kade Warner and punter/kicker Ty Zentner.

NEW FACES IN NEW PLACES

• Kansas State has welcomed in multiple Division I transfers over the spring and summer months, many of whom will be relied upon to fill significant roles.

• The incoming transfers for the 2022 season include safeties Drake Cheatum (Prairie View A&M) and Josh Hayes (Virginia/North Dakota State), linebacker Will Honas (Nebraska), wide receiver Jadon Jackson (Ole Miss), quarterback Adrian Martinez (Nebraska), wide receiver Erik Pizarro (Liberty), linebacker Shawn Robinson (Missouri/TCU) and running back LaJames White (Air Force).

A WINNING HISTORY

• A proven winner with a championship history, Chris Klieman holds a 92-29 career record, as his 76.0% career winning percentage ranks third among current FBS coaches that have led programs for at least nine years.

• Klieman, who is 20-16 since arriving at K-State, came to Manhattan after capping his five-year stint as head coach at North Dakota State by winning his fourth national championship in 2018. He guided the 2018 Bison to a perfect 15-0 record.

2022 OFFENSIVE NOTES

KLEIN TAKES OVER AS OC

- A 2012 Heisman Trophy finalist and one of the best signal callers in school history, Collin Klein enters his first season as K-State's offensive coordinator.
- Klein was promoted to interim offensive coordinator for the 2022 TaxAct Texas Bowl, and all he did was direct the Wildcats to 42 points – their highest output of the season and third-highest in school bowl history – while their 442 yards of total offense was the second-best output of the 2021 campaign and ranked fifth in K-State bowl history.
- Klein was a co-offensive coordinator for one season at K-State (2018), as he begins a run as the sole offensive playcaller for the first time in his career.

VAUGHN LOOKING TO IMPROVE OFF ALL-AMERICAN SEASON

- One of the top returning players in all of college football by multiple media outlets, running back Deuce Vaughn will look to improve upon his 2021 campaign in which he became the 11th Consensus All-American in school history.
- Vaughn, who is one of just five returning Consensus All-Americans from last season, enters 2022 ranked first nationally among all active non-kickers in career points scored per game (8.1), second among active players in career all-purpose yards per game (134.48), fifth in rushing yards per carry (5.7) and total touchdowns scored (31), eighth in rushing yards per game (89.0) and tied for eighth rushing touchdowns (25).
- A native of Round Rock Texas, Vaughn is coming off a season in which he was one of only three players in the nation with 1,000 rushing yards and 400 receiving yards, while he ranked fourth nationally with 22 touchdowns and was fifth in points per game (10.2).

AN EXPERIENCED SIGNAL CALLER COMING IN

- One of the top transfer quarterbacks in the 2022 cycle landed at Kansas State in Adrian Martinez, who spent the previous four seasons at Nebraska.
- A career 38-game starter for the Huskers, Martinez set 17 school records, including career total offense (10,792) and completions (670).
- Additionally, Martinez enters the 2022 campaign as one of only two active quarterbacks in the nation with 8,000 passing yards and 1,000 rushing yards in a career, while he ranks in the top 10 among active players in 15 career categories.

RETURNERS AT TACKLE

- Kansas State saw its three interior offensive linemen graduate, but the Wildcats do bring back the services of starting left tackle Cooper Beebe and starting right tackle Christian Duffie.
- Beebe was a First Team All-Big 12 selection by both the league's coaches and Associated Press, the youngest offensive lineman to be named to the first team by either organization and the first Wildcat freshman or sophomore offensive lineman to be named a First Team All-Big 12 performer since current Denver Bronco Dalton Risner.
- Duffie started all 13 games at right tackle last year, while he made eight starts in 2020.
- Additionally, the Wildcats return eight other players that have seen time during their careers, including four that played in at least nine games last year in Dawson Delforge (13), Hayden Gillum (13), KT Leveston (9) and Hadley Panzer (9).

2022 DEFENSIVE NOTES

A BIG TURNAROUND

- The K-State defense switched from a four-man front to a three-man front in 2021, and the change paid off in spades as the Wildcats trimmed 11.2 points and 100.0 yards per game allowed off their averages from the year prior.
- The Wildcats' 21.0 points per game allowed was their best mark since 2003 (16.3), while the 344.7 yards allowed per game was their best since 2009 (339.9).
- Additionally, the 129.5 rushing yards allowed per game was the best since 2017 (117.7), the 6.9 tackles for loss per game was the best since 2006 (7.0) and 18 turnovers gained the best since 2018 (19).

KING FELIX

- After making a name for himself in 2021, junior defensive end Felix Anudike-Uzomah will look to improve off an All-America campaign in which he was also named the Big 12 co-Defensive Lineman of the Year.
- A product of Lee's Summit, Missouri, Anudike-Uzomah finished the 2021 season tied for the national lead in forced fumble per game (0.46), while he ranked 11th nationally and second among sophomores sacks per game (0.85).
- He enters his junior year ranked second nationally among active players in career forced fumbles per game (0.33) and third in career sacks per game (0.67).

GREEN MEANS GO

- Linebacker Daniel Green is back for his senior season after leading the team in both tackles (89) and tackles for loss (16.0) last year en route to All-Big 12 honors.
- He ranked 18th nationally and fourth in the Big 12 with 5.3 solo tackles per game in 2021. He also finished eighth in the Big 12 with 6.85 tackles per game, the highest ranking by a Wildcat since 2017.
- During the 2021 season, Green totaled at least nine tackles in five games, including a season high 11-tackle performance against Baylor.

2022 SPECIAL TEAMS NOTES

SCORING IN THE THIRD PHASE

- One of the main reasons K-State has been successful the last three decades is momentum-swinging plays in the return game.
- Since 2005 (17 seasons), the Wildcats have a combined 58 kick-off- and punt-return touchdowns, 21 more than second-place Alabama (37) and 26 more than the next closest Big 12 team (Oklahoma State: 32).
- Of the 58 total returns, a nation-leading 31 are on kickoff returns. The next closest team is San Diego State with 19.
- With the Wildcats' blocked punt-return touchdown against West Virginia, K-State has now tallied a punt-return score in every season since 2014. The score against the Mountaineers was the only punt-return touchdown in the Big 12 in 2021.
- Additionally, K-State's 10 return touchdowns under head coach Chris Klieman since 2019 are the most among Power 5 schools.

KNOWLES WITH A KNACK

- Malik Knowles is the latest Wildcat with a knack for kickoff returns as he was a Second Team All-American and a First Team All-Big 12 selection.
- It was the 15th time in the 26-year history of the Big 12 that K-State had a First Team All-Big 12 returner.
- Knowles is tied for fourth in school history in both career and single-season kickoff return touchdowns.
- Knowles ranked fourth in the nation and fifth in school history with a 33.1-yard average in 2021.

"Stack good days on top of good days, and I promise you will be pleased with the process." That has been the message throughout the Chris Klieman era at Kansas State. And let's just say there have been many good days stacked on top of one another.

Klieman, a proven winner with a championship history, was named the 35th head football coach in Kansas State history on December 10, 2018, and in three seasons he has compiled 20 wins, which are the most in school history by a head coach in their first three years. In addition to the 20 overall wins, Klieman has led the Wildcats to back-to-back victories over Oklahoma – ranked No. 5 2019 and No. 3 in 2020 – kept the Governor's Cup trophy in Manhattan with three wins over in-state rival KU and has collected 13 Big 12 Conference wins.

Thanks to his 20 wins in Manhattan, Klieman holds a career head coaching record of 92-29 as his 76.0% winning percentage ranks third among current FBS coaches that have led programs for at least nine seasons, trailing only Clemson's Dabo Swinney (80.6%) and Alabama's Nick Saban (80.0%).

The latest in the line of victories was a 42-20 win over LSU in the TaxAct Texas Bowl at the end of the 2021 season, as he is the only coach in school history to send two teams to a bowl game in his first three seasons.

The 2021 season started with three straight non-conference wins over Stanford, Southern Illinois and Nevada and a top-25 national ranking. Following three Big 12-opening losses to teams that were ranked in the top 10 at some point in 2021, the Wildcats reeled off four-straight Big 12 wins, which included a come-from-behind road triumph at Texas Tech, home victories over TCU and West Virginia, and the program's 13th-straight win over in-state rival KU.

Under Klieman's watch, running back Deuce Vaughn became the 11th Consensus All-American in school history as the sophomore was one of three players in the nation to top 1,000 rushing yards and 400 receiving yards on the year, while he ranked in the top 25 nationally in nine different offensive categories. Vaughn was one of 16 Wildcats that earned All-Big 12 honors from the league's coaches, which included four first-team members in defensive end Felix Anudike-Uzomah, offensive lineman Cooper Beebe, kick returner Malik Knowles and defensive back Russ Yeast.

Much like his first two years in Manhattan, Klieman's emphasis of "how you do one thing is how you do everything" translated to the classroom as a school-record 34 players received Academic All-Big 12 honors. Vaughn and wide receiver Landry Weber each picked up CoSIDA Academic All-District accolades, while Weber was also a semifinalist for the William V. Campbell Trophy.

In Klieman's first year at the helm of the K-State program in 2019, the Wildcats managed to win eight games, finish in a tie for third in the Big 12 after being picked ninth in the preseason, knocked off No. 5 Oklahoma at home for the first time since 1996, won at Mississippi State – the Wildcats' first win in 11 tries inside an SEC stadium – kept the Governor's Cup in Manhattan following their 11th-straight win over rival Kansas and quickly got back to bowl eligibility after missing out the year prior. The eight wins by Klieman were the most in school history by a first-year coach and also ranked second nationally among first-year Power 5 head coaches in 2019, trailing only Ohio State's Ryan Day.

A total of 15 Wildcats earned All-Big 12 recognition in 2019, led by Special Teams Player of the Year Joshua Youngblood, who became the first true freshman in Big 12 history to be named Big 12 player of the year on offense, defense or special teams. His three kick returns for touchdowns led the nation in 2019 and sparked key Big 12 wins over Texas Tech and No. 23 Iowa State.

The Wildcats placed a school-record 32 players on the Academic All-Big 12 teams, including a league-record 26 first-team members. Headlining the list was Adam Holtorf, who was the Big 12 Scholar Athlete of the Year, a First Team Academic All-American and finalist for the Campbell Trophy.

Kansas State jumped out of the gate in Big 12 play in 2020 by winning its first four games, the first time the Wildcats went 4-0 to start conference play in six years and just the sixth time in the 25-year history of the Big 12. One of those victories was at No. 3 Oklahoma, the first road win over a top-five team in school history. The Wildcats were the first team to win two-straight games against the Sooners since 2013 and 2014 (Baylor) and the first to defeat top-five Sooners teams in consecutive years since 2001 and 2002 (Oklahoma State).

However, battling through the COVID-19 pandemic and losing senior starting quarterback Skylar Thompson for the season during the third game of the year, the Wildcats finished at 4-6. K-State was one of just two teams in the nation (Georgia Tech) to start true freshmen at both quarterback and running back in at least seven games in 2020. The running back turned out to be one of the best in the nation as Vaughn was named the True Freshman of the Year by 247Sports, landed on multiple All-America teams and was the Big 12 Offensive Freshman of the Year. Vaughn was one of nine Wildcats to earn All-Big 12 honors. The Wildcats also had another stellar year in the classroom in 2020 as they broke their own record from the year prior for Academic All-Big 12 honors with 33, which included 26 first-team members.

Prior to arriving at K-State, Klieman capped his five-year stint as head coach at North Dakota State by winning his fourth national championship in 2018. He tied Jim Tressel (Youngstown State) for the most FCS National Championships as a head coach, while he was a part of seven national championships at NDSU, which was the most in FCS history at the time of his departure.

Klieman guided the 2018 Bison to a perfect 15-0 record, just the fifth team in FCS history to go undefeated and untied on the way to a national championship. North Dakota State also claimed that feat in 2013 when Klieman as the defensive coordinator.

A native of Waterloo, Iowa, Klieman is first in NDSU history in winning percentage (.920) and third in victories (69).

Klieman's accomplishments as the Bison head coach came despite losing 23 seniors and welcoming seven new assistant coaches prior to his first season at the helm in 2014. That year, the Bison went 15-1 and won the national championship before going 13-2 with another national championship in 2015, 12-2 with a semifinal appearance in 2016 and 14-1 with a third national title in 2017.

Of Klieman's 69 wins at North Dakota State, 39 (56.5 percent) came over ranked opponents, while he had two wins in two tries over FBS competition — a 34-14 victory at Iowa State in his first game at the helm of NDSU and a 23-21 triumph at 11th-ranked Iowa in 2016. His teams were also stellar in protecting home field as evidenced by his 43-3 home record at NDSU, which includes winning each of his last 19 games at the FargoDome.

The Bison won the Missouri Valley Football Conference each of his five years as head coach and put together a collective 36-4 (90.0 percent) record against conference foes during that time. He was named the Bruce Craddock MVFC Coach of the Year in 2017, while he was the 2014 Rawlings Football/American Football Monthly FCS Coach of the Year and the 2018 AFCA Region 4 FCS Coach of the Year.

Elevated from defensive coordinator to head coach at NDSU on December 15, 2013, Klieman's defensive units during his two-year run as coordinator each included top-10 rankings in scoring defense, total defense, rushing defense and passing defense. Highlighting that run were No. 1 rankings in scoring defense in both 2012 and 2013, and total defense in 2012, the latter when he was named the Football Scoop FCS Coordinator of the Year. NDSU also led the nation in scoring defense when he was the defensive backs coach in 2011.

Klieman began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, Northern Iowa, in 1991 and 1992 before being promoted to an assistant coach in 1993. He went on to Western Illinois as an assistant coach from 1994 to 1996 before serving as a graduate assistant at Kansas in 1997 and an assistant coach at Missouri State in 1999.

Klieman then moved on to Division III Loras College in Dubuque, Iowa, where he was the defensive coordinator from 2002 to 2004 before taking over as head coach for the 2005 season. He returned to Northern Iowa in 2006 as an assistant coach before being elevated to defensive coordinator for the 2009 and 2010 seasons.

Klieman was a three-time All-Gateway Conference defensive back at Northern Iowa and four-year letterwinner from 1986 to 1990. He graduated from UNI in 1990 with a bachelor's degree in health education and a master's degree in physical education in 1992.

Klieman and his wife, Rhonda, are parents of two sons, Devin and Colby, and one daughter, Haley. Devin is a graduate assistant for the Wildcats, while Colby is a true freshman defensive back at Kansas Wesleyan.

* As a player

Van Malone, a builder of culture who was a successful defensive back in both college and the NFL, enters his fourth season coaching the cornerbacks at Kansas State in 2022. He added the titles of assistant head coach and passing game coordinator prior to the 2020 campaign.

Malone helped guide the 2021 defense to impressive results as the Wildcats allowed just 21.0 points per game – their best mark since 2003 – to rank 23rd in the nation and fourth in the Big 12. The turnaround was notable considering the year prior, as the team was ravaged by the COVID-19 pandemic, K-State allowed 32.2 points per game. The 2021 K-State defense also ranked 29th nationally and third in the Big 12 by allowing 344.7 yards per game – its best showing since 2009 – while the Cats surrendered only 129.5 rushing yards per game, their best effort in four seasons.

Under Malone's guidance, cornerback Julius Brents – who came to K-State as a transfer from Iowa – earned Honorable Mention All-Big 12 accolades from the league's coaches as a 13-game starter. Opposite Brents, Ekow Boye-Doe also started every game and played at an All-Big 12 level as teams only targeted his receiver 40 times in 13 games.

In his first season in Manhattan, Malone helped lead a defense that ranked second in the Big 12 by allowing 21.4 points per game. Thanks in part to Malone's work in the back end, Kansas State ranked second in the nation in third down defense at 28.0% – its best mark since at least 2003 – and second in the Big 12 in passing yards per game (202.9 yards per game) – its best finish in five years.

Malone tutored AJ Parker, who picked up Honorable Mention All-Big 12 accolades in 2019 despite missing the final five games of the year due to injury. At the time of his injury, Parker was tied for second in the Big 12 and 17th nationally in interceptions.

Malone began to take on more of a holistic approach for the team in 2020 as the assistant head coach while continuing to tutor the Wildcat cornerbacks. K-State corners combined for a pair of interception-return touchdowns in 2020 to tie for seventh in the nation. The first was by Parker, whose 37-yard return touchdown was vital in K-State's 21-14 victory at TCU. Following the game, Parker was named the Big 12 Defensive Player of the Week and the Jim Thorpe Award Player of the Week. The second pick-six was by Justin Gardner in the very next game against Kansas. Parker went on to be an undrafted free agent signee by the Detroit Lions – the team in which Malone spent his five-year NFL career with – and he went on to start seven games during his rookie campaign.

Gardner finished the year tied for fifth in the Big 12 in passes defended (9) and tied for seventh in interceptions (2). Malone also coached up Boye-Doe, who had seen limited time on defense during his career prior to starting this first-career game in K-State's win at No. 3 Oklahoma. Boye-Doe started eight games and finished with seven passes defended to rank 11th in the conference.

Malone came to Manhattan after one year working as a defensive quality control coach at Mississippi State. Prior to working with the Bulldogs, Malone was the defensive coordinator at SMU for three years, including the 2017 season when he was named the American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) National FBS Assistant Coach of the Year. That year, he tutored three All-AAC performers, including Justin Lawler, who was the conference's leader in sacks.

Malone coached Lawler to his first All-AAC honor in 2016, a year he was joined on the list by cornerback Horace Richardson and safety Darrion Millines. Malone's 2016 defense was statistically one of the 10 most improved in college football. The Mustangs ranked seventh nationally in interceptions per game and forced 26 turnovers overall. In fact, two of Malone's three defenses finished in the top 20 in defensive turnovers.

Malone went to SMU after a three-year stint at Oklahoma State where he coached the Cowboys' safeties in 2012 before switching to cornerbacks for the next two seasons. Under Malone's direct guidance, Justin Gilbert became Oklahoma State's first finalist for the Thorpe Award in 2013.

Malone's move to Stillwater came after two years serving as secondary coach and recruiting coordinator at Tulsa. Malone first coached in the Big 12 from 2006-09 when he worked at Texas A&M, with three of those four years resulting in bowl appearances.

Malone coached defensive backs at North Texas during the 2005 season and also assisted coaching the special teams. Before that, Malone served as the cornerback coach and worked with the special teams at Western Michigan in 2004, while he coached wide receivers at North Dakota State.

Malone played four seasons in the NFL after being drafted in the second round – the 57th selection overall – by the Detroit Lions in 1994. He played in every game as a rookie and was a standout special teams player, earning him a for the Pro Bowl in 1994 and 1995.

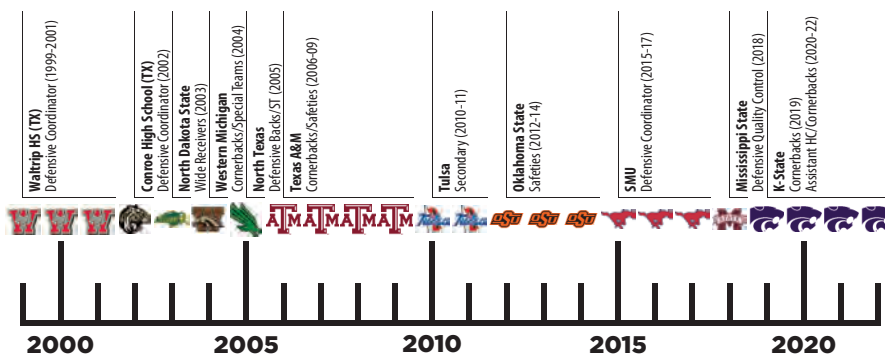

Malone was a four-year letterman (1990-93) at Texas, earning All-America honors and All-SWC accolades as a defensive back his senior season.

A native of Houston who majored in education/sports management while at Texas, Malone completed his undergraduate work through the NFL's degree completion program and earned his degree in social science from the University of Houston in 2002.

Malone and his wife, Nedra, have three sons, Van, Vaughn and Vincent. Vaughn is a cornerback for the Wildcats.

An eight-year member of Chris Klieman's staff, Joe Klanderman enters his fourth season at Kansas State in 2022 and his third as the defensive coordinator. In addition to running the defense, Klanderman also tutors the Wildcat safeties as he has done so since arriving in Manhattan in 2019.

Klanderman spearheaded a complete overhaul of the K-State defense prior to the 2021 season, going from a four-man front to conducting a three-man front for the first time in his career. The returns paid off as the Wildcats trimmed 11.2 points per game allowed from the previous season, down to 21.0 points per game to stand as their best mark since 2003 and rank 23rd in the nation and fourth in the Big 12.

Additionally, the defense allowed its fewest yards per game since 2009 (344.7) to rank third in the Big 12, while its 129.5 rushing yards allowed per game was its best effort in four seasons. K-State also finished with 90 tackles for loss on the year – its best mark since 2006 – to rank 10th in school history.

Overall, Klanderman helped nine Wildcats obtain All-Big 12 honors, including a pair of first-team honorees in defensive end Felix Anudike-Uzomah and safety Russ Yeast. Anudike-Uzomah was also the co-Big 12 Defensive Lineman of the Year and earned votes for Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year. In addition to Yeast, Klanderman also coached safety Jahron McPherson to Honorable Mention All-Big 12 accolades for a second-straight season. Following his lone season in Manhattan, Yeast was drafted by the Los Angeles Rams.

Klanderman oversaw a unit in 2020 that ranked seventh in the nation in interception-return touchdowns and 24th in sacks, the latter being the Wildcats' best mark in five years. The Wildcats had four All-Big 12 performers, including first-team honoree Wyatt Hubert as the defensive end ranked 16th in the nation and third in the Big 12 in sacks. Hubert went on to be drafted by the Cincinnati Bengals.

Another All-Big 12 performer and Klanderman protégé, McPherson, was a catalyst in helping K-State upset No. 3 Oklahoma in Norman. He totaled 11 tackles – including one for a loss – a forced fumble and an interception. He was the first Wildcat with double-digit tackles, a TFL, a forced fumble and a pick in the same game since 2002.

In his first year in Manhattan, Klanderman helped the 2019 Wildcats rank first in the nation in third down defense at 28.0%, which was the best by K-State since at least 2003. The Wildcats also ranked 15th nationally in first down defense (224) and put together a No. 2 ranking in the Big 12 in pass defense (202.9 yards per game), their best ranking in the conference since in five seasons. Thanks in part to Klanderman's tutelage of the back end of the defense, K-State allowed just 21.4 points per game, their best mark since 2003. Under Klanderman's guidance, Denzel Goolsby earned Honorable Mention All-Big 12 honors, the first Wildcat safety to do so since 2016.

Klanderman came to Manhattan from North Dakota State after helping the Bison win four national titles in his five seasons on staff, which included a perfect 15-0 record in 2018. The NDSU defense was a major factor in its undefeated run as the Bison ranked first nationally with 23 interceptions, including six by safety Robbie Grimsley and five by safety James Hendricks.

Overall, the Bison ranked in the top five in scoring defense each of his five years on staff, including a No. 2 ranking in 2017 (11.6 points per game) and No. 3 spot in 2018 (12.6). His secondary has also helped NDSU rank in the top 11 in passing yards allowed in four of the five years, with a No. 3 national ranking in 2017 (147.9 yards per game).

Thanks to the nation-leading 23 picks in 2018, the Bison totaled 100 interceptions during Klanderman's five years on staff, helping NDSU finish third in the country in 2017 and fifth in both 2014 and 2016.

During his time at NDSU, Klanderman coached a trio of All-America safeties in Grimsley, Colten Heagle and Tre Dempsey, in addition to multiple all-conference performers. Heagle finished his career ranked first in Bison history with 191 solo tackles, while Grimsley was second with 159.

Klanderman went to North Dakota State after a 12-year coaching stint at his alma mater, Minnesota State. While in Mankato, Klanderman served as the defensive line coach from 2002 to 2004 before moving to the secondary in 2005. He then took over the reins as defensive coordinator from 2007 to 2013 while coaching the linebackers.

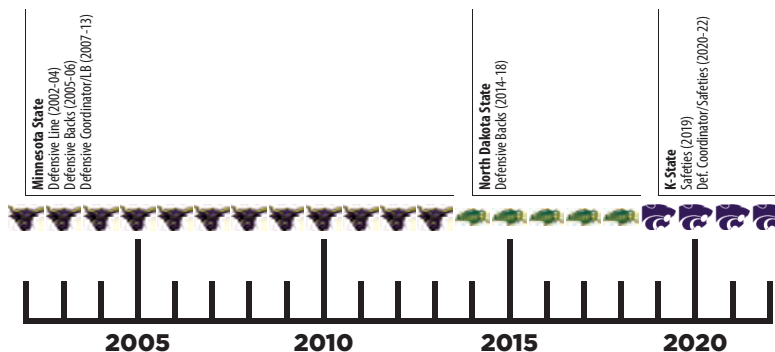

During his time at Minnesota State, Klanderman helped tutor 26 first team all-conference honorees and 10 All-Americans. He helped five Maverick squads earn at least nine wins, including the 2012 and 2013 seasons in which MSU went a combined 24-2.

Klanderman was a three-year starter on the defensive line for the Mavericks from 1997 to 2001, serving as a starter for three of those seasons. A product of Hammond, Wisconsin, Klanderman was named an Academic All-Region honoree following his senior season in 2001.

A 2001 graduate from Minnesota State with a degree in social studies, Klanderman also obtained his master's degree in sports administration from MSU in 2004.

Klanderman and his wife, Amanda, are the parents of four children, Elle, Corryn, Jarrett and James.

A 2012 Heisman Trophy finalist and one of the greatest quarterbacks to ever don a Kansas State uniform, Collin Klein enters his sixth season coaching the K-State quarterbacks in 2022 and his first as the offensive coordinator, a position he was promoted to in January.

Klein, who is in his eighth season overall on the coaching staff, conducted one of the best offensive games in school bowl history as he was the interim offensive coordinator in the Texas Bowl win over LSU. The Wildcats produced 42 points, their highest output of the season and the third-highest scoring mark in K-State bowl history, while their 442 yards of total offense was the second-highest showing of the year and ranked fifth in school bowl history.

The Texas Bowl victory was the final chapter in the career of Skylar Thompson, who left as one of the best quarterbacks in school history. Under Klein's guidance, Thompson earned 24 career wins as a starting quarterback – the most among all K-State signal callers since at least 1990 – while he was the only player in school history with 6,000 passing yards and 1,000 rushing yards in a career. Thompson also set the school record for lowest career interception percentage (1.81%), ranked second in passing touchdowns (42), passing yards (7,134), completions (552) and total offense (8,221), while he ranked in the top 10 in 10 other categories. Following his departure, Thompson was selected in the 2022 NFL Draft by the Miami Dolphins, K-State's first quarterback taken in the draft in 13 years.

Battling through a pair of injuries that saw him miss three games in 2021, Thompson was still able to set K-State's single-season record for completion percentage (69.53%), rank second in passing efficiency (159.3), third in passing yards per attempt (9.07) and eighth in passing yards per game (211.3). His performance in the Texas Bowl earned him MVP honors as he threw for 259 yards and a career-high tying three touchdowns on 21-of-28 aim, tying for second in K-State bowl history in completions and completion percentage (75.0), tying for third in touchdown passes and ranking sixth in passing yards.

In 2019, his first year under head coach Chris Klieman, Klein was able to help implement a new offense and work with Thompson as the Wildcats were one of the top offensive units in the Big 12. Under Klein, Thompson earned Honorable Mention All-Big 12 accolades as he finished 10th in K-State history in single-season completions (177) and touchdowns responsible for (23). Taking a page out of Klein's playbook when he was a player, Thompson rushed for 11 touchdowns on the year to tie for eighth nationally among quarterbacks, including seven over a two-game stretch in wins over No. 5 Oklahoma and Kansas.

Thanks in part to Klein's teachings, the Wildcats led the nation in red zone offense (96.2%), ranked ninth in the country and first in the Big 12 in time of possession (33:27), and 10th nationally in fewest passes intercepted (5). K-State's red-zone percentage was its best since at least 2001 and the best by a Big 12 team since at least 2004, while the five picks tied for the fewest in school history in a 13-game season.

The 2020 season saw some hard-ship as Thompson started the year under center but only lasted three games prior to a season-ending injury. One of Thompson's starts was in K-State's win at No. 3 Oklahoma, the Wildcats' first road win over a top-five team. In that game, Thompson threw for a career-high 334 passing yards and accounted for four touchdowns as he became the first Big 12 quarterback with consecutive wins over Oklahoma since 2013 and 2014.

However, the next week saw Thompson go down for the year, and Klein inserted true freshman Will Howard. Howard went on to start seven games – one of four true freshmen quarterbacks in the nation to make at least seven starts – and the Wildcats won his first two starts, the first K-State true freshman signal caller to accomplish the feat. Howard went on to set the K-State freshman record for passing touchdowns (8) and finish third in passing yards (1,178).

In his first season as a K-State assistant coach in 2017, Klein helped the Wildcats earn their eighth-straight bowl berth despite being forced the start three different quarterbacks due to injury. Under Klein's tutelage, Jesse Ertz put together the fifth-best pass efficiency mark in a season (150.22). Klein also helped develop Thompson – then a redshirt freshman – who started the final four games of the season. Thompson's season was highlighted by a Wildcat victory at 10th-ranked Oklahoma State where he produced a 274.89 pass efficiency rating to rank fifth in school history.

Additionally, Alex Delton helped lead the Wildcats to victories against Kansas and Texas Tech in 2017, while he came off the bench against UCLA in the Cactus Bowl to rush for 158 yards and three touchdowns to earn Offensive MVP honors.

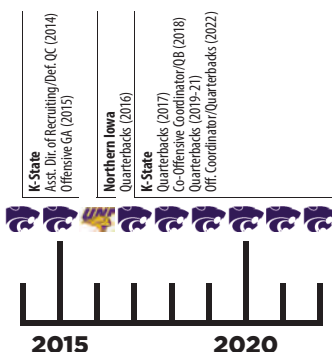

Klein entered the coaching profession as an assistant director of recruiting operations and quality control coach at K-State in 2014 before taking over as an offensive graduate assistant the following year. He then coached quarterbacks at Northern Iowa in 2016 before returning to Manhattan.

The 2012 Johnny Unitas Award winner, Klein led the Wildcats to a combined 21-5 record as the starting quarterback in 2011 and 2012, which culminated with a No. 1 national ranking, Big 12 Championship and Fiesta Bowl berth in 2012. He is a member of K-State Football's Ring of Honor as part of the Class of 2022.

Klein obtained his undergraduate degree from K-State in December 2011 in business financial services and controllorship, while he received his master's degree in academic advising in December 2019. He is married to the former Shalin Spani, a former Wildcat women's basketball player. The couple has three sons, Beric, Rhett and Trek.

* As a player

A 27-year coaching veteran with a versatile background of coaching of offensive skill positions, Brian Anderson is in his fourth season as K-State's running backs coach in 2022.

Anderson's running backs have found success in each of his first three seasons in Manhattan, including 2021 Consensus All-American Deuce Vaughn. The sophomore, who became the 11th Consensus All-American in school history, was one of the top all-purpose players in the nation as he was one of three players with 1,000 rushing yards and 400 receiving yards. He ranked fourth nationally in total touchdowns (22), fifth in points per game (10.2), fifth in yards from scrimmage per game (144.0), eighth in rushing touchdowns (18) and ninth in rushing yards per game (108.0). Vaughn picked up First Team All-America honors from the Associated Press and Sporting News, and he was a second-team pick by CBS Sports, the American Football Coaches Association and USA TODAY.

With the help of Anderson, Vaughn enters the 2022 season ranked first among all active non-kickers in career points per game (8.1), second among active players in career all-purpose yards per game (134.48), fifth in rushing yards per carry (5.7) and total touchdowns scored (31), and eighth in rushing yards per game (89.0). He's also ranked third in Big 12 history in career scrimmage yards per touch (6.8), just behind Oklahoma's Kennedy Brooks (7.0) and Texas' Vince Young (6.9).

Vaughn and the rest of Anderson's backs helped K-State rank third in school history with 6.3 yards per play and sixth with 4.83 rushing yards per attempt, while they tied for second in the Big 12 with 29 rushing touchdowns.

Vaughn was one of the most electrifying true freshmen in the nation in 2020 thanks to Anderson's teachings, which was impressive considering a condensed fall camp due COVID-19 protocols. Vaughn totaled 1,221 all-purpose yards – including 642 yards on the ground – in 10 games with nine total touchdowns. Thanks to Anderson's teachings, Vaughn was named the 247Sports True Freshman of the Year, a Freshman All-American by the Football Writers Association of America (FWAA) and The Athletic, an Honorable Mention All-American by Phil Steele and the Big 12 Offensive Freshman of the Year by the league's coaches.

Vaughn, who broke the K-State freshman records for rushing yards, yards from scrimmage (1,076) and all-purpose yards, was the first Wildcat true freshman to earn First or Second Team All-Big 12 honors on offense in the Big 12 era. Anderson and Vaughn – in addition to the other Wildcat running backs – helped K-State finish fourth the nation and tops in the Big 12 in red zone offense at 93.9%.

Anderson tutored a running back group in 2019 that helped the Wildcats finish fourth in the Big 12 in rushing offense (178.0 yards per game) and third in the league in rushing touchdowns (29). Due to its work on the ground, K-State led the nation in red-zone offense at 96.2% – the best mark by the Wildcats since at least 2001 and the best by a Big 12 team since at least 2004. K-State also ranked ninth in the nation in time of possession at 33:27, the highest by a Wildcat team since 2012.

Not only did Anderson have to teach the running back group a new offense, he had to do so with zero scholarship running backs on the roster when he arrived. However, Anderson and the Wildcats did benefit from a pair of graduate transfers in James Gilbert and Jordon Brown, who finished first and third on the team in rushing, respectively. Under Anderson, Gilbert rushed for 737 yards and six touchdowns en route to Honorable Mention All-Big 12 accolades.

Anderson came to Manhattan from Illinois State, where he coached the wide receivers in 2018. He made an impact during his one season in Normal, coaching a receiving group that combined for 133 receptions for 1,913 and 15 touchdowns. Most of those figures were the production of Spencer Schnell, a First Team All-Missouri Valley Conference performer. Anderson also tutored Andrew Edgar, a Freshman All-American who set an Illinois State freshman record with 746 yards on 44 receptions to go along with four touchdowns.

Anderson coached at Minnesota from 20011-16, including the 2011 to 2013 seasons tutoring the running backs. During his final season at the position, Anderson helped produce the Gophers' first 1,000-yard running back in eight years when David Cobb rushed for 1,202 yards. In 2012, Anderson coached Donnell Kirkwood, who churned out 926 yards during his sophomore campaign.

Prior to his stint in Minneapolis, Anderson coached tight ends at Northern Illinois for three years after tutoring the wide receivers and kick returners at Southern Illinois the previous seven seasons.

Anderson has ties to the state of Kansas that go back to the late 1990s when he coached at Coffeyville Community College from 1997-2000, where three of his student-athletes went on to play in the NFL. He also coached two seasons at Highland Community College.

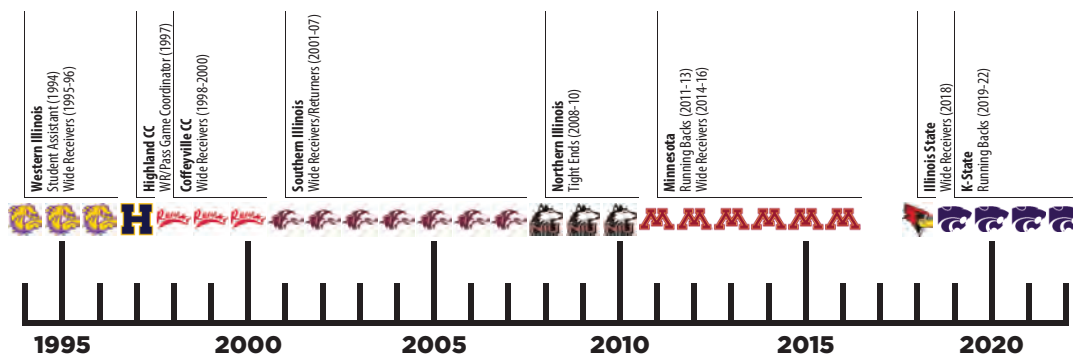

Anderson began his coaching career at Western Illinois, serving as a student assistant in 1994, before coaching wide receivers in 1995-96.

Anderson's playing career began at Ellsworth Community College in Iowa Falls, Iowa. At Ellsworth, Anderson took part in the 1988 Royal Crown Cola Bowl and the 1989 Mid-American Bowl, that season's NJCAA national championship game. He then moved on to Western Illinois, where he lettered as a wide receiver in 1991 and 1992.

Anderson holds a bachelor's degree from Western Illinois, and he and his wife, Kerri, have a daughter Annabelle.

Brian Lepak, an intelligent young coach with coaching stops at two other Power 5 schools, was promoted from senior offensive quality control to assistant coach tutoring the fullbacks and tight ends in January 2022.

Lepak coached the Wildcat fullbacks and tight ends in K-State's victory over LSU in the Texas Bowl, seeing four of his pupils catch passes, including two by senior tight end Daniel Imatorbhebhe that went for 29 yards.

During the bulk of the 2021 season, Lepak broke down future opponents' tendencies and potential player matchups for the coaching staff, and he assisted with the early implementation of the game plan each week.

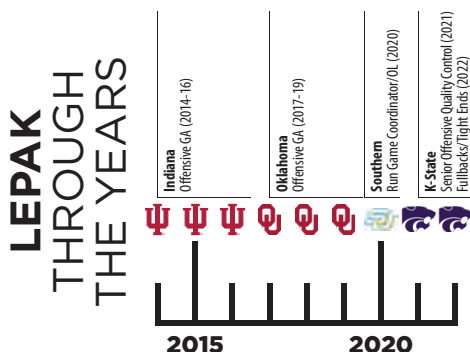

Prior to coming to Manhattan, Lepak served one year as the run game coordinator and offensive line coach at Southern. During his lone season in Baton Rouge, Lepak helped the Jaguars earn a top-20 final ranking during the 2021 spring season. Under Lepak's watch, all five Southern offensive linemen earned All-SWAC honors, including three first-team performers. Southern finished the COVID-shortened spring season with a 5-1 record.

Lepak spent the previous three seasons as a graduate assistant at Oklahoma. While on the Sooners staff, Lepak assisted with the offensive line that helped pave the way for multiple national award winners – including two Heisman trophy winners – and helped lead the team to three consecutive Big 12 Championships and College Football Playoff appearances. In 2018, the offensive line was awarded the Joe Moore Award for the nation's most outstanding offensive line unit. He went to Oklahoma after spending the 2014 through 2016 seasons as a graduate assistant at Indiana.

A native of Claremore, Oklahoma, Lepak was an offensive lineman for two seasons at Colorado State before transferring to Oklahoma where he spent three seasons, including the 2010 Big 12 Championship team, while he was an Academic All-American that year.

After completing his playing career, Lepak was awarded the Dr. Prentice Gautt Postgraduate Scholar Award and attended law school at the University of Oklahoma College of Law where he was a member of the Oklahoma Law Review. He graduated in 2014 and was admitted to the Oklahoma Bar Association the same year. In addition to his law degree, he has dual degrees in Accounting and Finance from the OU Price College of Business where he was the Outstanding Senior in Accounting.

Lepak and his wife, Colleen, have three children, Thomas, Penelope and Luke.

A developer of young talent who has consistently churned out quality offensive lines, Conor Riley enters his fourth season at Kansas State in 2022.

Over his first three years in Manhattan, Riley has produced eight All-Big 12 honorees, which includes first-team selection Cooper Beebe in 2021. Beebe, who also earned votes for the Big 12 Offensive Lineman of the Year award, was joined by Honorable Mention All-Big 12 performers Noah Johnson and Josh Rivas in addition to 13-game starters Christian Duffie and Ben Adler in helping K-State rank third in school history with 6.3 yards per play and sixth with 4.83 rushing yards per attempt.

Additionally, K-State tied for second in the Big 12 with 29 rushing touchdowns, just one behind the leader and two away from entering the school's top-10 list. The Wildcats finished the 2021 season with 362.3 yards of total offense per game, its best mark since 2017, while they ranked fifth in the league by allowing 1.85 sacks per game. All three of Riley's units have surrendered less than 2.0 sacks per game, marking the first time since the 2002 through 2004 seasons that the Wildcats were under that mark in three-straight campaigns.

Riley hit the ground running in 2019 as he tutored four linemen that earned All-Big 12 honors from either the league's coaches or Associated Press, the most by the Wildcats since 2012. The group was headlined by seniors Scott Frantz (second team), Adam Holtorf (honorable mention) and Nick Kaltmayer (honorable mention), while Rivas, then a sophomore, was a first-team performer by the Associated Press.

The Wildcat line paved the way for 178.0 rushing yards per game to rank fourth in the Big 12, while K-State's 29 rushing touchdowns were the third most in the league. Thanks in large part to Riley's guidance of the line, K-State led the nation in red zone offense (96.2%) – the best mark by the Wildcats since at least 2001 and the best by a Big 12 team since at least 2004. Kansas State also ranked ninth in the country and first in the Big 12 in time of possession (33:27), its best figure since 2011.

Coming into the 2020 season with no returning starters from the previous campaign – and without any spring practices and limited preseason work due to the COVID-19 pandemic – Riley brought a new line together throughout the year and turned it into one of the top units in the Big 12 toward the end of the season. The Wildcats had their two best rushing outputs in the final two games, totaling 256 yards at Baylor and 274 yards against Texas, each of which ranked in the top 10 of the Big 12 for total rushing yards in a conference game during the 2020 season.

Protecting a true freshman starting quarterback for most of the season, the Wildcats' front line ranked 22nd in the nation and second in the Big 12 in sacks allowed (1.40 sacks per game) and helped K-State lead the league and rank fourth nationally in red zone offense (93.9%). Spearheading the Wildcat line was a walk-on turned team captain in Johnson, who was a Second Team All-Big 12 honoree by the league's coaches and also earned votes for the Big 12 Offensive Lineman of the Year award.

Riley came to Manhattan from North Dakota State where he coached the previous six seasons – including the final five tutoring the offensive line under head coach Chris Klieman – helping NDSU win five national championships during his tenure.

Each of Riley's six years on the NDSU staff, the Bison averaged at least 235 rushing yards per game and ranked in the top 10 nationally in rushing, including a highwater mark of 286.2 yards per game in 2018 to rank seventh the nation and a 272.2-yard clip in 2017 to rank fourth.

Riley's 2018 offensive line blocked for the best in Bison and Missouri Valley Conference history in terms of points scored (622), touchdowns scored (80), total rushing yards (4,293), total offense (7,076) and rushing touchdowns (54).

Riley coached multiple All-Americans at NDSU, starting with fullback Andrew Grothmann in 2013, and continuing with offensive linemen Joe Haeg (2014, 2015), Zack Johnson (2015, 2016), Landon Lechler (2016), Austin Kuhnert (2017), Tanner Volson (2018) and Zack J. Johnson (2018).

In 2018, Volson was named the top offensive lineman in the country by the FCS Athletic Directors Association, the fifth-straight Bison under Riley to earn the nod after Kuhnert (2017), Zack Johnson (2016) and Haeg (2015 and 2014). Volson also won the 16th annual Rimington Trophy as the top center, and he was also named a First Team All-American by HERO Sports and STATS. Zack J. Johnson added a First Team All-America honor from the Walter Camp Foundation in 2018.

Riley went to NDSU as tight ends and fullbacks coach in 2013 before molding one of the top offensive lines in the nation the next season. With four new starters and a fifth who was changing positions, the 2014 Bison rolled to a 15-1 record and national championship. Riley, who spent the 2011 and 2012 seasons as the offensive line coach at Sacramento State, was the offensive line coach and running game coordinator at the Omaha from 2007 to 2010.

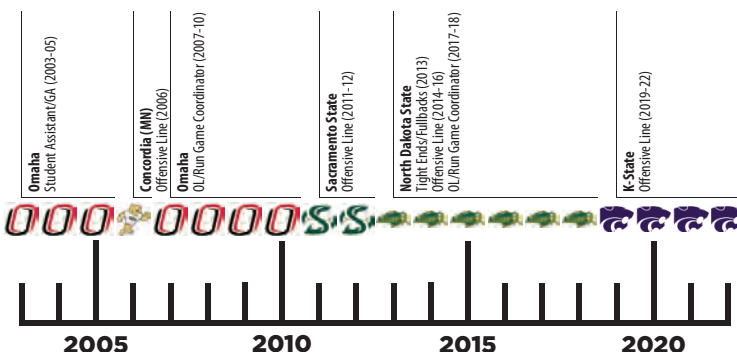

A 2003 graduate of University of Nebraska Omaha, Riley began his collegiate coaching career at UNO as a student and graduate assistant from 2003 to 2005. He left his alma mater to become the offensive line coach at Concordia University-St. Paul in 2006.

The Omaha native enjoyed a standout high school career at Creighton Prep. He began his collegiate playing career at the U.S. Air Force Academy, then transferred to Kansas before heading to UNO in 1999.

He and his wife, Christy, are the parents of two daughters, Cate and Claire.

The 2021 season saw Stanard coach both his starting linebackers to Honorable Mention All-Big 12 honors as junior Daniel Green (89) and senior Cody Fletcher (75) ranked first and second on the team in tackles, respectively. Green, who ranked 22nd in the nation and fourth in the Big 12 in solo tackles per game (5.3), also led the Wildcats with 16.0 tackles for loss. His 6.85 tackles per game average ranked eighth in the Big 12 and was the highest ranking by a Wildcat since 2017.

Thanks in part to the linebacking duo, the Wildcats saw their points allowed per game average go from 32.2 in 2020 to 21.0 in 2021 – K-State's best mark since 2003 – to rank 23rd in the nation and fourth in the Big 12. The defense allowed its fewest yards per game since 2009 (344.7) to rank third in the Big 12, while the Wildcats' surrendered only 129.5 rushing yards per game to stand as their best mark in four years. Additionally, K-State rack up 90 tackles for loss on the year – the most since 2006 – to rank 10th in school history.

In his first year in Manhattan, Stanard saw three of his linebackers rank in the top five on the team in tackles, while the Wildcats ranked 24th nationally in sacks to stand as K-State's best mark in five seasons. One of his linebackers, Elijah Sullivan, earned Honorable Mention All-Big 12 honors.

Stanard, who has 20-seasons worth of experience as a defensive coordinator, came to K-State after spending the previous three years as the defensive ends coach at Syracuse. He began his coaching career at Nebraska following his playing days with the Huskers, and he crossed paths with head coach Chris Klieman at North Dakota State in 2012 and 2013 when Stanard tutored the Bison linebackers.

Over his final two seasons tutoring the Orange edge rushers, Stanard guided the careers of Alton Robinson and Kendall Coleman, who developed into one of the ACC's most productive tandems during that time. Robinson logged 32.5 career tackles for loss and finished his career seventh in team history with 17.5 sacks, while Coleman registered 26.5 tackles for loss and 15.5 sacks.

In 2019, Stanard helped the Orange rank No. 12 nationally in turnovers gained (25) and No. 11 in fumbles recovered (12), while Robinson garnered All-ACC Honorable Mention accolades. In 2018, Syracuse ranked in the top 10 nationally in five statistical categories, including sacks per game (6th - 3.31). Robinson developed into a Second Team All-ACC performer and combined with Coleman to produce 20 sacks – the most of any ACC duo. Both players led the conference and tied for eighth nationally in sacks per game (0.83).

Overall, Stanard's unit was responsible for 29 of Syracuse's school-record 43 sacks in 2018 to help the Orange to a 10-3 record and the 2018 Camping World Bowl victory.

Prior Syracuse, Stanard served as the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Wyoming from 2014 to 2016. In 2015, Stanard protégé Logan Wilson led all conference rookies in tackles per game (6.7) and was voted the 2016 Mountain West Freshman of the Year. Stanard's unit helped Wyoming to a berth in the 2016 Mountain West title game and to an appearance in the Poinsettia Bowl.

Stanard went to Wyoming from NDSU as he helped the Bison earn a 29-1 record and capture consecutive FCS national titles. His work with the linebackers contributed to the Bison boasting the nation's top-ranked scoring defense in both 2012 (11.5 points per game) and 2013 (11.3 points per game). In 2013, Stanard coached Grant Olson, who was named an All-American by the Associated Press.

Stanard's experience as a defensive coordinator includes running defenses at six schools. In addition to his three years running the Wyoming defense, he spent three seasons as the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Tulane (2009-11), five years as the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Colorado State (2003-07), three years as the defensive coordinator at New Mexico State (2000-02), one season as the defensive coordinator at South Dakota (1996) and five years as the defensive coordinator at Nebraska Wesleyan (1991-95).

While at Tulane, Stanard's defense led Conference USA in passing defense in two out of his three seasons there, and, at Colorado State, he helped guide the Rams to two bowl appearances.

Stanard also served as the defensive line coach at Ohio in 2008, while he coached the defensive ends and outside linebackers at New Mexico State from 1997 to 1999 before being named the defensive coordinator in 2000.

Stanard began his college coaching career in 1988 as a student assistant coach at his alma mater, Nebraska. During his time in Lincoln both on the field and on the sideline, Stanard was a member of seven bowl teams, while he has been a part of 12 total bowl squads as either a player or a coach during his career.

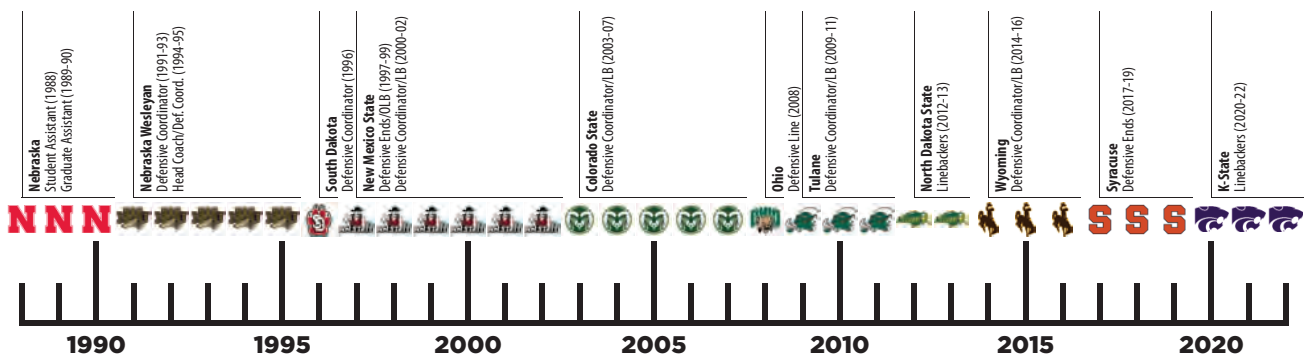

After a three-year stint with the Huskers, Stanard received his first full-time coaching job in 1991 at Nebraska Wesleyan. He served as the school's defensive coordinator, and later, head coach and assistant athletic director.

Stanard earned his bachelor's degree in business administration from Nebraska in 1989 and later obtained his M.B.A. from the school in 1995.

Stanard and his wife, Jennifer, have four children – Austin, Paige, Max and Madison.

* As a player

Mike Tuiaosopo, a veteran coach with over 30 years of experience, is in his fourth season at Kansas State coaching the defensive tackles in 2022.

Tuiaosopo aided in the transition of the defense from a four-down alignment to a three-down front in 2021, a shift that proved to be effective as the Wildcats cut 11.2 points per game allowed off their total from the previous year. The 21.0 points per game surrendered in 2021 ranked 23rd in the nation and fourth in the Big 12, and it was K-State's best mark since 2003. K-State also ranked 29th in the nation and third in the Big 12 by allowing 344.7 yards per game – its best effort since 2009 – while the Wildcats allowed only 129.5 rushing yards per game to stand as their best mark in four seasons. The Wildcat defensive tackles also helped K-State rack up 90 tackles for loss on the year – the most since 2006 – to rank 10th in school history.

Tuiaosopo's interior defensive line group in 2021 was led by Eli Huggins, who picked up Honorable Mention All-Big 12 accolades after setting a new career best with 3.0 sacks and tying his career best with 6.0 tackles for loss.

In his first season in 2019, Tuiaosopo helped the Wildcats rank second in the nation in third-down defense (28.0%) – their lowest mark since at least 2003 – and surrender only 368.4 yards per game – the best by a K-State defense since 2013. Additionally, K-State allowed its fewest points per game – 21.4 – since 2003.

The defense was led in part by a duo of starting senior defensive tackles coached by Tuiaosopo, Trey Dishon and Jordan Mittie. Dishon, who was a four-year starter, set career highs in tackles (30) and tackles for loss (5.0), while he tied his career high in sacks (3.0). Mittie, a former graduate transfer, carded 33 tackles and tied a career high with 5.5 TFLs.

In year two, Tuiaosopo's defensive tackles helped K-State rank fourth in the Big 12 and 24th in the nation sacks, its best mark nationally in five years. Senior Drew Wiley, who was starting for the first time in his career, earned Second Team All-Big 12 honors from the Associated Press after tying for 10th in the Big 12 in sacks (4.5) and 14th in tackles for loss (9.0). Those two totals were the most by a Wildcat interior defensive lineman since 2017.

Tuiaosopo came to Manhattan after serving one season as the defensive line coach at UTEP. Prior to his time in El Paso, he served as the special teams quality control assistant at USC in 2017, which claimed the Pac-12 Conference title for the first time in nine years. Tuiaosopo served as an offensive consultant for USC in 2016, and he was a volunteer football analyst for the Trojans the season prior.

USC was the latest of several stops throughout the Pac-10/12 as he coached the outside linebackers and special teams at UCLA in 2014 after coaching the defensive line at Colorado in 2011 and 2012, while he coached the defensive tackles at Arizona from 2004 to 2010.

The 2014 Bruin defense ranked third nationally in total defense (398.5 yards per game) in the Pac-12, which featured Tuiaosopo product Deon Hollins becoming the Bruins' sack leader in his first season as a starter.

Tuiaosopo worked seven seasons at Arizona, including his final three seasons where the Wildcats ranked in the top 33 in the nation in total defense.

Tuiaosopo tutored All-Pac 10 performer Ricky Elmore in addition to Brooks Reed and De'Aundre Reed to 2011 NFL Draft selections. Tuiaosopo also coached two others that earned all-conference honors and were drafted into the NFL, Earl Mitchell and Lionel Dotson in 2008. In 2010, he tutored Justin Washington to several Freshman All-America honors.

Tuiaosopo spent the 2003 season at Utah where he coached the defensive tackles. That season, Utah went 10-2 with a victory in the Liberty Bowl en route to a No. 21 final ranking. Tuiaosopo was instrumental in the recruitment and development of Sione Pouha, a draft selection by the New York Jets in 2005, and Jonathan Fanene, who was drafted by Cincinnati.

Tuiaosopo got his start in coaching in 1990 and 1991 when he led the defensive line and special teams at Montclair Academy in Van Nuys, California. He then went on to become a graduate assistant at Pacific from 1991-92, while he was the head coach at Berkley High School from 1993-94.

He earned his first full-time job collegiate job at Utah State in 1996, coaching four seasons. While in Logan, Tuiaosopo coached 1997 Big West Defensive Player of the Year Ben Crosland, who also earned Honorable Mention All-America honors from Sporting News. Tuiaosopo moved from Utah State to Nevada in 2000, coaching three seasons for the Wolfpack.

Tuiaosopo lettered four years as a defensive tackle at Pacific Lutheran University, starting his final three years. He was a two-time First Team All-Columbia Conference performer, and in his junior year, Pacific Lutheran won the NAIA Division II National Championship.

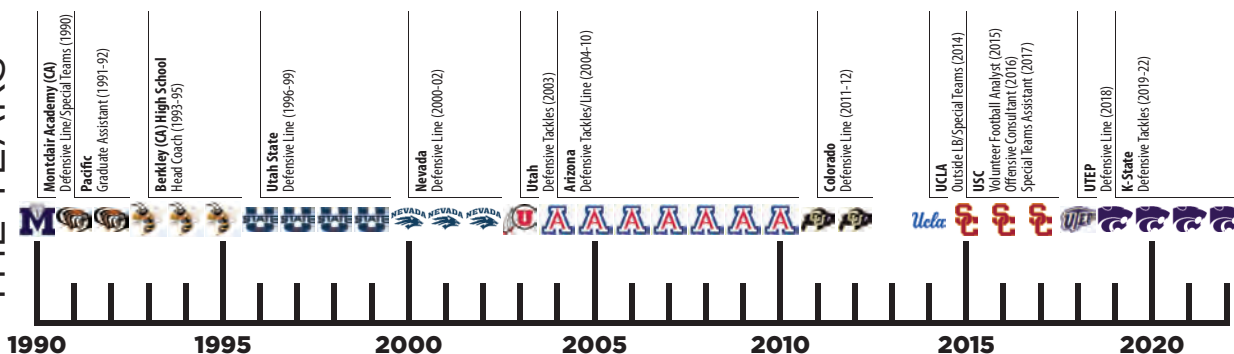

Tuiaosopo comes from a football-rich family tradition that includes: uncle Bob Apisa (Michigan State/Green Bay Packers), cousin Manu Tuiaosopo (UCLA/Seattle/San Francisco), brother Navy (Utah State/Los Angeles Rams/St. Louis Cardinals), brother Titus (USC), cousin John Tautolo (UCLA/New York Giants/New England), cousin Terry Tautolo (UCLA/Philadelphia/ Detroit/San Francisco/Miami) and nephew Marques Tuiaosopo (Washington/Oakland/New York Jets). Marques is currently the offensive coordinator at Rice.

Tuiaosopo graduated from Pacific Lutheran with a degree in physical education and health in 1989, while he earned his master's degree from Pacific in Education Administration Credentials in 1992.

Tuiaosopo and his wife, Kathy, have four children: Lanea, Maya, Titus and Luke. Titus is a defensive tackle for the Wildcats.

A 20-year coaching veteran with stops in the Midwest and on the East Coast, Thad Ward is in his first season as Kansas State's wide receivers coach after being hired in February 2022.

Ward came to Manhattan after spending the previous three seasons at Temple where he tutored the Owl wide receivers and served as the pass game coordinator. He coached Jadon Blue to a pair of All-AAC honors, including the 2019 season when Blue set the school's all-time record for receptions (95) and yards (1,067), becoming the first player in school history to top the 1,000-yard receiving mark. Opposite Blue, Branden Mack caught 59 passes for 904 yards and seven touchdowns, each of which ranked among the best in school history.

This past season, Ward's wideouts were the top three receivers for the Owls as the position group combined for 152 catches for 1,568 yards and 10 scores.

Ward went to Temple following three seasons as the running backs coach at the Illinois. In 2018 under the direction of Ward, running back Reggie Corbin rushed for 1,085 yards and nine touchdowns as his 8.5 yards per carry were the best in the FBS. In 2017, Ward coached freshman Mike Epstein, who was the fifth true freshman in program history to lead the team in rushing yards and also tied for the team lead with four total touchdowns.

In his first season with the Fighting Illini in 2016, Ward helped junior running back Kendrick Foster have a breakout year, finishing third in the Big Ten in yards per carry (5.7) and seventh in all-purpose yards per game (110.7). Corbin also had a big season, ranking 14th in the nation in yards per carry among freshmen (6.1), the best mark by an Illini freshman since at least 2000.

Ward went to Illinois following three seasons coaching the wide receivers at Northern Illinois from 2013 to 2015, helping the Huskies to a 31-11 record and three bowl appearances. His success was highlighted by two-time All-MAC honoree Da'Ron Brown, who was selected by the Kansas City Chiefs in the 2015 NFL Draft. Brown caught 68 passes for 1,065 yards and six touchdowns to lead the Huskies to the 2014 MAC Championship. He also helped develop Kenny Golladay, drafted by the Detroit Lions in the third round in 2017, and Tommylee Lewis, a 2013 All-American who went on to become an undrafted free agent signed by the New Orleans Saints in 2016.

Ward spent the 2012 season at Western Michigan as he developed wide receiver Jaime Wilson into the MAC Freshman of the Year thanks to 67 receptions for 792 yards and six touchdowns.

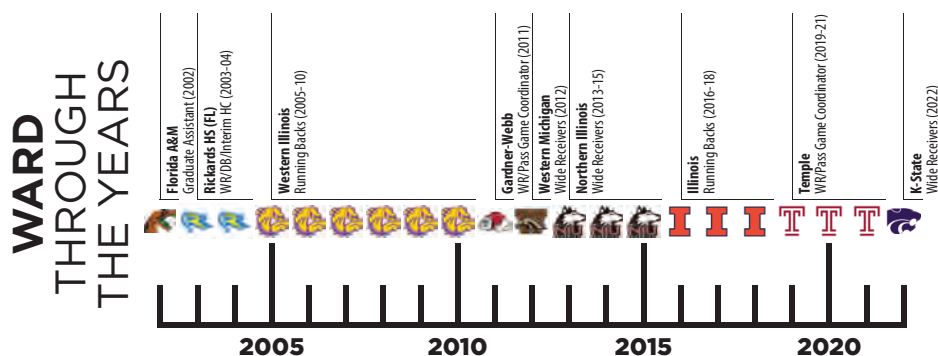

Prior to WMU, Ward spent one season at Gardner-Webb as the wide receivers coach/passing game coordinator in 2011, which followed six seasons as the running backs coach at Western Illinois from 2005 to 2010. During his time in Macomb, Ward coached three players to All-America status in Travis Glasford (2005), Herb Donaldson (2007 and 2008) and Dre Gibbs (2008). In his final season at WIU, Ward helped the Leathernecks finish with an 8-5 record, which included a victory in the First Round of the FCS Playoffs.

Ward began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Florida A&M before spending two years coaching at Tallahassee (Fla.) Rickards High School in 2003 and 2004, the final year serving as the interim head coach.

Ward played three seasons at UCF from 1999 to 2001. As a senior, he was the team's second-leading receiver for 44 catches for 446 yards and a touchdown. In 1999, Ward returned a pair of blocked punts for touchdowns, one at Georgia and the other at Middle Tennessee. He went to UCF after spending two seasons at Coffeyville Community College, including the 1998 campaign when current K-State running backs coach Brian Anderson was on staff.

Ward obtained his bachelor's degree in criminal justice at UCF in 2001. He and his wife, Jocelyn, have two daughters, Jayda and Journie, and one son, Thaddaeus, Jr.

Buddy Wyatt, a respected defensive line coach who has worked in the Big 12, SEC, Big Ten and American Athletic Conference during his more than 30 years in the profession, is in his fourth season as Kansas State's defensive ends coach in 2022.

Assisting K-State's transition from a four-down alignment to a three-man front in 2021, Wyatt and his defensive ends helped K-State rank 23rd in the nation and fourth in the Big 12 by allowing just 21.0 points per game – 11.2 less than the year prior – which was the Wildcats' best effort since 2003. K-State also only permitted 344.7 total yards per game – its best mark since 2009 – to rank third in the Big 12 and 29th in the nation. That effort included just 129.5 yards allowed on the ground, the fewest by the Wildcats in four seasons.

The Wildcat defensive ends helped K-State rack up 90 tackles for loss on the year – the most since 2006 – to rank 10th in school history.

Wyatt coached sophomore Felix Anudike-Uzomah to All-America honors in 2021, while he was the co-Big 12 Defensive Lineman of the Year and a First Team All-Big 12 honoree. Anudike-Uzomah, who also earned votes for the Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year award, tied for the national lead in forced fumbles per game (0.46), while he ranked 11th nationally and second in the Big 12 in sacks per game (0.85). His 11.0 total sacks tied for fifth in school history, and his six forced fumbles tied the school record. Opposite Anudike-Uzomah, Wyatt tutored Nate Matlack, who earned votes for the Big 12 Defensive Freshman of the Year award as he played in every game with starts in the final three contests and totaled 3.5 sacks.

Arriving at K-State for the 2019 season, Wyatt went right to work with two dynamic ends, coaching senior Reggie Walker to Honorable Mention All-Big 12 honors and sophomore Wyatt Hubert to First Team All-Big 12 accolades. Under Wyatt, Hubert also earned votes for the Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year and Big 12 Defensive Lineman of the Year awards. Hubert tied for second in the Big 12 in sacks and ranked 10th in tackles for loss.

Wyatt's tutelage of the ends in 2019 was a major factor in the Wildcats leading the nation in third-down defense at 28.0%, the best mark by K-State since at least 2003. Kansas State also allowed just 21.4 points per game, the second-best mark in the Big 12 and the program's best figure since 2003.

Wyatt went back to work tutoring Hubert in 2020 to another First Team All-Big 12 honor from the league's coaches – and was the only unanimous choice on defense – as he tied for third in the Big 12 and 16th in the nation in sacks. Hubert again earned votes for the Big 12 Defensive Player and Defensive Lineman of the Year awards in 2020. Thanks to Wyatt's teachings, Hubert finished his career tied for eighth in school history with 20.0 career sacks, while he left ranking seventh in the nation among active players in sacks per game (0.59) and 10th in tackles for loss per game (1.00). Hubert went on to be selected in the 2021 NFL Draft by Cincinnati.

As a team, the Wildcats ranked 27th in the nation and third in the Big 12 with 2.80 sacks per game. The Wildcats' national ranking was their best in five seasons.

Wyatt came to Manhattan after serving as a senior analyst at Kansas in 2018. His previous full-time assistant coaching job was tutoring the SMU defensive line from 2015 to 2017 under then-Mustang defensive coordinator and now K-State assistant head coach Van Malone.

SMU's defense was stout with Wyatt's help as the 2016 Mustangs were statistically one of the 10 most improved in college football. Wyatt coached a pair of all-conference players in three years at SMU, headlined by defensive end Justin Lawler. Lawler tallied 9.5 sacks in 2017 and tied for the team lead with 15.5 tackles for loss as the Mustangs had 19 different players make a tackle behind the line of scrimmage en route to their first bowl appearance in five seasons.

Wyatt's tenure in Manhattan is his seventh tour of duty in the Big 12 having coached at Oklahoma State (1996), Colorado (1999), Texas A&M (2000-02, 2008-09), Nebraska (2007) and Kansas (2010-14).

During his second stint with the Aggies – one in which he also worked with Malone – Wyatt coached defensive end/linebacker Von Miller, a two-time All-American, went on to become an NFL All-Pro player and MVP of Super Bowl 50.

In addition to Miller, Wyatt also has worked with NFL players such as Ndamukong Suh (five-time Pro Bowl selection who was the No. 2 pick in the 2010 NFL Draft), Michael Bennett (three-time Pro Bowl selection and Super Bowl champion), Jamal Williams (two-time All-Pro player), Adam Carriker (first-round draft pick in 2007), Tyler Brayton (first-round pick in 2003), Rocky Bernard (Super Bowl champion), Ty Warren (two-time Super Bowl champion), Justin Bannon, Ronald Edwards and Ronald Flemons.

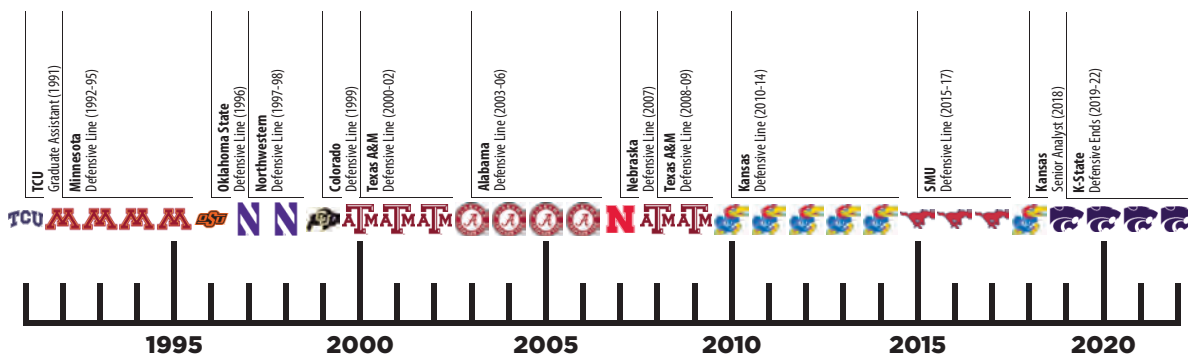

Helping teams advance to 10 bowls during his career, Wyatt has also worked at a pair of Big Ten schools in Minnesota (1992-95) and Northwestern (1997-98), in addition to SEC school Alabama (2003-06).

A native of Victoria, Texas, Wyatt was a defensive lineman at TCU from 1986 to 1989. He earned his bachelor's degree in education from TCU in 1990 and began his coaching career as a graduate assistant for the Horned Frogs working with the defensive line in 1991.

Wyatt and his wife, Andrea, have two children, Fredrick and Ariel. Fredrick (Fred) played collegiately at Northwestern and is the current defensive line coach at Missouri Western State.

Trumain Carroll, a 16-year veteran of the strength and conditioning field who has spent the last six years leading strength and conditioning efforts at FBS schools, is in his second season at K-State in 2022.

Carroll came to Manhattan after one season as the Director of Football Strength and Conditioning at South Florida, while he was the Director of Strength and Conditioning for the Arkansas football program the previous two seasons.

No stranger to the Big 12 and the Midwest, Carroll played football at Oklahoma State from 2001 to 2005 and served two different terms as an assistant strength coach for the Cowboys, while he also was the Director of Strength and Conditioning at the University of Missouri-Kansas City from 2008 to 2011.

After his playing days at OSU where he helped the Cowboys earn three-consecutive bowl berths, Carroll was an assistant strength and conditioning coach from 2006 to 2008. While in Stillwater, Carroll designed and directed the strength program for the Oklahoma State women's basketball program that advanced to the Sweet 16 in the 2007 NCAA Tournament. He also assisted in the strength and conditioning program with the football team that won the 2006 Independence Bowl and the 2007 Insight.com Bowl.

Carroll then went to be the Head Strength and Conditioning Coach at South Carolina State from 2011 to 2012 where he oversaw the strength and conditioning program for over 300 student-athletes in 14 sports before returning to OSU for the 2013 and 2014 seasons and working with current K-State assistant coaches Van Malone and Jason Ray.

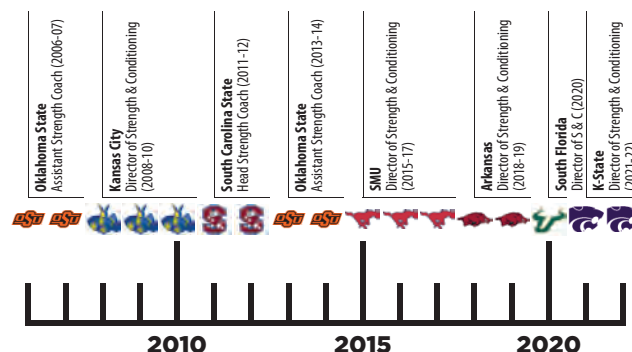

In 2015, Carroll went to SMU as the Director of Strength and Conditioning for the Mustangs for three seasons. While in Dallas, Carroll oversaw all strength and conditioning for over 400 student-athletes in 17 sports with an emphasis in football, a time in which he worked with Malone and current Wildcat defensive ends coach Buddy Wyatt.

During his tenure at SMU, Carroll's efforts in the weight room aided in the development of All-American wide receivers Courtland Sutton and Trey Quinn, who both went on to NFL Draft selection. Sutton and Quinn were two of the most dynamic wide receivers in college football in 2017, each posting 1,000-yard receiving seasons to become one of the only pair of teammates in the FBS to accomplish the feat.

Carroll earned his bachelor's degree in university studies from Oklahoma State in December 2005. He received his Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coach Certification in May 2007 and his USA Weightlifting Sports Performance Certification in February 2008. Most recently, Carroll earned his Master Strength and Conditioning Certification in May 2020.

- 2021 Big 12 Newcomer of the Week (Southern Illinois)
- 2021 Ted Hendricks Award watch list

CAREER: Enters 2022 season ranked second nationally in forced fumbles per game (0.33) and third in sacks per game (0.67)... Is three forced fumbles shy of tying the school's career record, while he is 6.5 sacks away from entering K-State's career top-10 list.

2021: One of the top defensive players in the nation who earned Third Team All-America honors from Phil Steele and was a First Team All-Big 12 performer by both the league's coaches and Associated Press... Also earned votes for Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year from the coaches... Tied for the national lead in forced fumbles per game (0.46), while he ranked 11th nationally and second in the Big 12 in sacks per game (0.85)... Ranked second in the nation among sophomores in sacks to Alabama's Will Anderson Jr... His 11.0 total sacks tied for fifth in school history overall and tied for second by a sophomore... His six total forced fumbles tied the school record...

Finished fourth on the team with 52 tackles, including 14.5 tackles for loss to rank second on the team, as 27.9% of his total stops resulted in a loss... Tied a school record with 4.0 sacks against TCU, a mark that was originally set by Chris Johnson at Missouri in 2000... Had two sacks against TCU taken away due to fumbles that were recovered on K-State's side of the original line of scrimmage... If he had finished with 6.0 sacks, it would have tied the FBS single-game record... Had sacks on three-straight defensive snaps against TCU, the final two plays of the first half and the first defensive play of the second half... Also posted a career-high eight tackles against the Horned Frogs, bettering his previous career high of seven set earlier in the season at Oklahoma State... Was named the Walter Camp National Defensive Player of the Week, Bednarik Award Player of the Week, Bronko Nagurski Trophy Player of the Week and Big 12

Defensive Player of the Week following his outing against the Horned Frogs... Tallied two forced fumbles against the Horned Frogs, a feat he also accomplished against Southern Illinois... Earned Big 12 Newcomer of the Week honors following his game against SIU... One of only three players in the nation to have two forced fumbles in two different games during the year... Had 3.0 sacks against Southern Illinois as he was the first player in school history to have 3.0-sack games twice in one season... Tallied a safety at Texas Tech by tackling a running back in the end zone... It was the Wildcats' first safety via a tackle in the end zone since 2005 (Steven Cline vs. Missouri)... His safety against the Red Raiders came with K-State trailing, 24-10, and gave the Wildcats life in a game in which they came back to win, 25-24, and vaulted them to their four-game winning streak.

2020: A dynamic player on offense – who played in all 10 games with four starts – but perhaps did his most damage on special teams as he was a Third Team All-American punt returner by Phil Steele... Also earned First Team All-Big 12 honors as a returner from the league's coaches... Put together a 23.7-yard punt return average, a mark that would have led the nation and be the best in school history if he had one more return to meet the NCAA required minimum... Set a school record with 189 punt-return yards and two touchdowns against Kansas en route to Big 12 Special Teams Player of the Week honors... His two punt-return touchdowns were the most in Big 12 history for a conference game... His 47.25-yard average against the Jayhawks was the highest by any player in the nation with at least four attempts since at least 1996... His two touchdowns on the season were tied for third in school history... Helped the Wildcats rank third in school history and second in the nation during 2020 in team punt-return average (22.07)... Hauled in 15 passes for 155 yards and two touchdowns on the year, while he rushed eight times for 41 yards... Scored the Wildcats' first touchdown of the season on a 17-yard reception against Arkansas State, while he had another on a 25-yard catch just before halftime against Oklahoma State... Earned First Team Academic All-Big 12 honors.

Game Notes

• The Wildcats are now 3-0 in neutral-site games to open a season, with the other wins being a 27-7 victory over Iowa (2000) and a 42-28 win over California (2003), both at Arrowhead Stadium in Kansas City... K-State is now 28-4 (87.5%) in season openers since 1990 and holds an 86-35-5 (70.7%) mark all-time in season openers... Chris Klieman is 7-2 (77.8%) in season openers in his nine years as a head coach.

• K-State only gave up seven points, the fewest allowed to a Power 5 non-conference opponent since only allowing six points at USC in 2002.

• The Cats converted on both of its red zone attempts... Dating back to the beginning of 2019 – the first year under head coach Chris Klieman – the Wildcats are 83-of-87 (95.4%) on red-zone attempts... K-State led the nation in red zone efficiency in 2019 and was fourth in 2020 as the Wildcats are the only team to rank in the top five nationally each of the previous two seasons.

• Deuce Vaughn carded 124 yards and a touchdown on 13 carries... It was his fourth career 100-yard rushing game and his third-straight game dating back to last year... It is the 12th time in school history a player has had a streak of at least three-straight games with 100 yards rushing.... The last time a Wildcat had at least three-straight games of 100 rushing yards was Alex Barnes in 2018 (four-straight games)... He scored on a 59-yard rush in the first half, a career long.

• Skylar Thompson made his 31st career start under center for the Wildcats... The victory was his third in a season opener as a starter, the most by a Wildcat starting QB since at least 1930... Thompson now has 24 career rushing touchdowns to rank fourth in school history among quarterbacks.

WILDCATS HANDLE STANFORD IN 2021 OPENER

ARLINGTON, Texas – The first time Skylar Thompson talked about his decision to come back to Manhattan, he said he wanted to end his K-State career on a high note.

After his first touchdown of the season, a six-yard Thompson scamper in front of the K-State student section at AT&T Stadium, it was hard to argue with the Wildcats senior captain. But it was easier than ever to picture Thompson making good on that March prediction.

K-State defeated Stanford 24-7 in their season opener, played in Arlington as part of the 2021 Allstate Kickoff Classic. It was a wire-to-wire victory, and the Wildcats found the explosive plays they needed to complement a K-State defense that completely shut down the Cardinal.

Start with the atmosphere at AT&T Stadium, where a game played almost 500 miles from Manhattan still managed to deliver the Wildcats an undeniable home-field advantage. A pair of Powercats in each endzone was one thing, but the K-State fans packed into AT&T Stadium delivered the noise when it mattered. Midway through the second quarter, Stanford had already racked up three false starts.

Meanwhile, the Wildcats overcame an early mistake on offense – a highlight reel interception by Stanford cornerback Kyu Blu Kelly in the endzone – to play from in front against Stanford.

On K-State's second drive of the game, Phillip Brooks raced through busted coverage for a 56-yard catch-and-run. The All-American returner was also the Wildcats leading receiver on Saturday, hauling in three passes for 81 yards, a new career high. His first catch of the afternoon would set up Thompson's six-yard touchdown run, and the Wildcats never looked back in Arlington.

Deuce Vaughn was involved early and often for K-State, with 13 carries and two receptions against the Cardinal. His biggest play of the afternoon came in the second quarter, when on third-and-long, Vaughn broke loose on a draw play for a 59-yard touchdown run.

Vaughn finished with 124 yards and a touchdown, his third consecutive 100-yard rushing day going back to last season.

Another Thompson rushing touchdown in the fourth quarter would put the game out of reach, after a TJ Smith interception had the Wildcats in Stanford territory.

It was the defense, with big plays throughout the afternoon, that turned AT&T Stadium into Manhattan South. With five new starters on defense, the Wildcats kept Stanford off the board until it was 24-0 in the fourth quarter.

The Cardinal punted on their first four drives before Louisville transfer Russ Yeast came up with his first interception as a Wildcat to stop another Stanford drive inside the K-State 30-yard line.

Head coach Chris Klieman talked postgame about the importance of limiting explosive plays, and Stanford's longest play from scrimmage on Saturday was 30 yards.

► Game Notes

• K-State running back Deuce Vaughn rushed for 120 yards, while wide receiver Malik Knowles had 112 receiving yards... It was the first time since the 2014 Texas Tech game that the Wildcats had a 100-yard rusher and a 100-yard receiver in the same game... That year against the Red Raiders, quarterback Jake Waters rushed for 105 yards, while Curry Sexton (128) and Tyler Lockett (125) each netted 100-yard receiving games.

• Malik Knowles hauled in four catches for 112 yards... It was a career-high in receiving yards, bettering a 99-yard effort against Bowling Green on September 7, 2019... It was the Wildcats' first 100-yard receiving game since Deuce Vaughn went for 129 yards last year at Oklahoma, while it was the first by a K-State wide receiver since Isaiah Zuber had a 133-yard output at West Virginia on September 22, 2018.

• Deuce Vaughn carded 120 yards and three touchdowns on 26 carries... It was his fifth career 100-yard rushing game and his fourth-straight game dating back to last year... It is the fifth time in school history a player has had a streak of at least four-straight games with 100 yards rushing... It was the first time a Wildcat had three rushing touchdowns since Skylar Thompson did so against Oklahoma last season, while it was the first by a Wildcat running back since Barnes had four against Oklahoma State in 2018.

• Defensive tackle Jaylen Pickle carded his first-career interception on a ball batted up in the air by linebacker Ryan Henington... It was the first time a Wildcat interior defensive lineman recorded a pick since Matt Seiwert did so against Missouri State in 2016.

K-STATE HOLDS OFF SIU IN HOME OPENER

MANHATTAN, Kan. — Kansas State lost star sixth-year senior quarterback Skylar Thompson to an apparent right knee injury and suffered four turnovers, but the Wildcats' defense came to the rescue down the stretch in a 31-23 victory over Southern Illinois in front of 47,628 at Bill Snyder Family Stadium.

With 7 minutes, 21 seconds left in the first quarter and K-State facing first-and-10 at the Southern Illinois 12-yard line, Thompson handed off to sophomore running back Deuce Vaughn to the right side and attempted to block for the preseason All-American. However, Thompson fell to the ground with a non-contact injury to his right knee, causing a hush to fill the stadium that was near capacity for the first time since 2019.

Thompson remained on his back for several minutes and K-State head coach Chris Klieman joined him before medical staff took Thompson to the injury tent. Thompson later walked under his own power with staff to the locker room.

Thompson made his 32nd career start, tying Eli Roberson for first among K-State quarterbacks since 1990, and ranks fourth in school history with 5,261 passing yards.

With Thompson sidelined, K-State's best drive without its sixth-year senior came on the final possession of the game. Sophomore Will Howard hit wide receiver Phillip Brooks with a 21-yard pass across the middle to set up the Wildcats at the SIU 38-yard line. Then running back Joe Ervin came alive with a 14-yard carry up the middle. Vaughn carried the ball three straight times, finally charging through the biggest gap of the game as he ran untouched up the middle from 4 yards out for a 31-23 lead just under 2 minutes remaining in the game.

Vaughn had 26 carries for 120 yards and three touchdowns — his fourth-straight 100-yard performance — leading an offense that outgained Southern Illinois 380-276, but left plenty to be desired.

Defensive tackle Jaylen Pickle recorded his first-career interception off a batted ball by linebacker Ryan Henington while defensive end Felix Anudike-Uzomah spearheaded the defensive effort with five tackles, including a career-high three sacks and two forced fumbles. He raced off the edge and forced Southern Illinois quarterback Nic Baker to fumble with 8:37 left in the fourth quarter. Linebacker Daniel Green recovered the ball deep in Southern Illinois territory.

The Wildcats were unable to convert — this time on a missed 24-yard field goal attempt. Still, K-State did enough. The defense impressively held Southern Illinois off the scoreboard the second half.

When Thompson left the field, the game turned into a nail biter quickly.

On his first full drive, Howard took the offense 55 yards on 10 plays as Vaughn rushed 1 yard for his second score and a 21-3 lead. K-State's lead quickly evaporated as SIU scored 20 unanswered points, including two touchdowns off turnovers, and the Wildcats trailed 23-21 at halftime. K-State suffered a turnover on each of its final three possessions in the second quarter alone.

K-State's troubles began when Southern Illinois went on a nine-play, 75-yard drive that ended with a four-yard touchdown run by Javon Williams, Jr. On the Wildcats' first play from scrimmage, Southern Illinois forced a fumble at the K-State 17-yard line and needed just two plays to score a touchdown and trim K-State's lead to 21-16. K-State's struggles continued as Howard threw a third-down interception that PJ Jules returned 41 yards for a score and the Wildcats suddenly trailed 23-21. Howard then suffered a fumble when he was sacked at the K-State 49-yard line with 59 seconds remaining in the second quarter. Fortunately, the Wildcats were able to regroup at halftime.

► Game Notes

• With the win, the Wildcats put together a perfect 3-0 non-conference slate for the season time in head coach Chris Klieman's three years at the helm... Since 1993, the K-State has put together 17 perfect regular-season non-conference ledgers... In the previous 16 occurrences, the Wildcats went on to win at least eight games 12 times.

• Deuce Vaughn rushed for a career-high 127 yards and a touchdown on 23 carries, while he also hauled in one catch for 15 yards... It was Vaughn's fifth-straight games with 100 rushing yards, the longest streak since Darren Sproles also did so in five-straight games in 2003... It is tied for the third-longest streak in school history behind a 10-gamer by Sproles over the 2002 and 2003 seasons and a six-game streak by Isaac Jackson in 1973... His 127 rushing yards bettered his previous career high of 125 last year against Texas.

• Vaughn also etched his name in the record book as he became the 32nd player in school history to achieve 1,000 career rushing yards, but one of the fastest in school history to do so... Vaughn reached the milestone on the 183rd carry of his career, ranking him fifth in school history.

• Dating back to last season, Kansas State has rushed for 200 yards in five-straight games... It is the longest streak by the Wildcats with 200 yards of rushing since the 2016 team did so in seven-straight games against Texas, Iowa State, Oklahoma State, Baylor, Kansas, TCU and Texas A&M.

• Kansas State scored on the second play of the game, a 68-yard pass from Will Howard to Daniel Imatorbhebhe with 14:16 left on the clock... It was tied for the ninth-quickest score in school history.

K-STATE DOMINATES FOURTH QUARTER IN WIN

MANHATTAN, Kan. — Will Howard accounted for three touchdowns and sophomore running back Deuce Vaughn gained 100 rushing yards for a fifth straight game while reaching 1,000 in his career, as Kansas State raced away from Nevada 38-17 at Bill Snyder Family Stadium.

Howard, who started in place of injured sixth-year quarterback Skylar Thompson, fired a 68-yard touchdown on the Wildcats' second play from scrimmage. He rushed for two touchdowns during a fourth quarter in which the offense broke a 17-17 tie by scoring the final points the rest of the way in the Wildcats' first-ever meeting against Nevada. K-State's 21 fourth-quarter points tied for the third most in school history.

In a game in which K-State actually entered as a slight underdog, the Wildcats made a statement in going 3-0 ahead of their Big 12 Conference opener at Oklahoma State. The chip on the shoulder is fully intact for a league season that they've dubbed the "revenge tour," after they finished with a 4-5 conference mark a year ago.

Vaughn continued his young career by reaching more marks behind his jitter moves and powerful running. Vaughn had 23 carries for 127 yards and one touchdown, becoming the first K-State player since Darren Sproles in 2003 to reach five-consecutive games with at least 100 rushing yards. Vaughn reached 100 yards and 1,000 career rushing yards on back-to-back plays that got the Cats to the Nevada 5-yard line with less than 7 minutes remaining. It was his 20th and 21st carries of the game. Vaughn now has 1,013 career rushing yards.

Howard pushed the ball over the goal line from 2 yards out for a 31-17 lead to cap an 11-play, 62-yard drive. Moments later, Howard ended an 8-play drive with a 1-yard touchdown run to close out a dominant contest on the ground.

K-State outrushed Nevada 269-25 and rushed for four touchdowns. Its streak of five 200-yard rushing efforts dating to last season marks the longest streak since 2016. The Wildcats were clicking with a 22-yard touchdown run by running back Joe Ervin, who added 11 carries for a career-high 82 yards and scored his first touchdown since 2019.

The K-State defense had its hands full during a third quarter in which Nevada quarterback Carson Strong, a projected first-round NFL draft pick, guided the Wolf Pack from a 17-7 deficit to tie the score. Strong showed exactly why a handful of scouts were on hand to observe him from the press box behind his composure and powerful arm. Although Strong entered the day ranked fifth in the FBS in passing yards (346.0) and ninth in passing touchdowns (six), K-State held him to 27 of 40 passing for 262 yards and one touchdown and one interception.

Nevada entered averaging 35.5 points and 479.0 total yards in its previous two games at California (22-17) and against Idaho State (49-10), but K-State held the Wolf Pack to just two touchdowns on 10 offensive drives.

Howard, who started in eight games last season, struck early by finding tight end Daniel Imatorbhebhe across the middle with the 68-yard touchdown just 44 seconds into the game, tied for the ninth-quickest score in school history. The Wildcats were on their way to completing their 17th perfect non-conference season since 1993 while dominating the line of scrimmage, averaging 6.5 yards per play and committing no turnovers.

► Game Notes

• The nation's leader in non-offensive touchdowns since 1999, Kansas State got its first one of the year on a 99-yard kickoff return by Malik Knowles in the first quarter, answering an Oklahoma State touchdown... It was the Wildcats' 123rd non-offensive touchdowns since 1999, the most in the nation... Entering play on Saturday, the Wildcats led second-place Alabama by nine (113)... Additionally, it was K-State's 56th kickoff- or punt-return touchdown since 2005, which is also the nation's best... Entering play on Saturday, Alabama was second with 34.

• Knowles tallied the second kickoff-return touchdown of his career on his 99-yard return in the first quarter... His first was a 100-yard return two years ago at Mississippi State... Knowles' two career kickoff return touchdowns now tie him for fifth in school history.

• Running back Deuce Vaughn finished the game with five receptions for 73 yards, which included a 55-yard touchdown reception in the third quarter... It was the fourth time in his career that he tallied at least 70 receiving yards... Vaughn improved his career receiving yardage total to 536, which ranks fifth in school history among running backs or fullbacks.

WILDCATS DROP BIG 12 OPENER AT OSU

STILLWATER, Okla. — No. 25 Kansas State saw early momentum from a Malik Knowles' 99-yard kickoff-return touchdown flattened by Oklahoma State quarterback Spencer Sanders and a Cowboys' first-half scoring flurry, and the Wildcats saw their perfect start to the season end during a 31-20 loss.

K-State's bid to remain undefeated after four games for the first time since 2012 effectively came to a halt shortly after Knowles' magical kickoff return with 6 minutes, 18 seconds left in the first quarter offered promise. Knowles fielded the kickoff down the right side at the 1, weaved past three defenders off blocks, stiff-armed another defender as he hit the middle of the field, then adjusted and angled back to the right side the final 50 yards into the end zone and a 10-7 lead.

K-State's 123 non-offensive touchdowns since 1999 are the most in the nation, as are its 56 combined kickoff- and punt-return touchdowns since 2005. Unfortunately for K-State, their cheers on the sideline didn't last too long.

K-State hadn't allowed an opponent to score 24 points this season. Oklahoma State put up 24 unanswered points in less than 18 minutes. The Wildcats trailed 31-13 at halftime and couldn't scratch back within single digits the rest of the way.

Oklahoma State entered 98th in scoring offense and with some apparent questions after the Cowboys fought off their first three opponents in Missouri State (23-16), Tulsa (28-23) and at Boise State (21-10) without scoring 30 points in any game. However, the Cowboys exploded with their best showing of the season, as the Wildcats were unable to solve Sanders and Jaylen Warren, who nearly had both 100 rushing yards and 100 receiving yards despite missing some time in the second half due to injury.

Sanders threw for two touchdowns and ran for another, as the Cowboys scored on drives of 75, 73 and 90 yards. Sanders completed 22 of 34 for 344 yards and two touchdowns to go along with nine carries for 18 yards and one touchdown. Warren had 27 carries for 123 yards and added four catches for 81 yards. Senior wide receiver Tay Martin had a game-high nine catches for 100 yards and one score.

K-State used both of its quarterbacks. Sophomore quarterback Jared Lewis came off the sideline to complete 10 of 19 passes for 148 yards with one touchdown and one interception after starter Will Howard suffered an injury. Howard, in his first career start in a full-capacity road environment, went 4 of 12 for 50 yards and had three carries for a team-high 28 yards. However, Howard also suffered one costly lost fumble late in the first quarter that resulted in a touchdown and the Wildcats trailed 21-10.

Oklahoma State clamped down on Deuce Vaughn's rushing game, holding the Wildcats' biggest offensive weapon to season lows with just 22 yards on 13 carries. But Vaughn led the Wildcats with five catches for 73 yards and scored the only touchdown by the offense in the game.

Oklahoma State outgained K-State 486-260 in total yards. K-State managed just 198 passing yards and a season-low 62 yards on the ground. K-State ranked sixth nationally in rushing defense in allowing less than 55 rushing yards per game, but Oklahoma State amassed 132.

The Wildcats suffered their seventh loss in their last eight trips to Stillwater while also opening a Big 12 Conference season away from home for the 21st time in the 26-year history of the league.

► Game Notes

• Quarterback Skylar Thompson returned after missing the previous two games due to injury... It was the 33rd start of his career, which is the most by any K-State quarterback since 1990... He set career highs in completions and attempts, and he tied his career high in touchdown passes... His 320 passing yards were the second most in his career... His passing touchdown total now stands at 33, which is tied for sixth in school history, while he has 57 career touchdowns responsible for to rank sixth in school history.

• Deuce Vaughn hauled in 10 passes for 104 yards and a touchdown... It was the most receptions by a Wildcat in a game since Isaiah Zuber had 10 at West Virginia in 2018... It was the second time in his career he eclipsed the 100-yard mark on the receiving end, with both of those coming against Oklahoma... Vaughn now has 640 career receiving yards, which ranks third in school history among all running backs/fullbacks.

• Malik Knowles returned a fourth-quarter kickoff 93 yards for a touchdown... It was the third of his career and the second of the season, which have come in back-to-back games... He is now tied for fourth place in school history in both career and single-season kickoff-return touchdowns... It is the fourth time in school history a player had a kickoff-return touchdown in consecutive weeks, including the second time under Chris Klieman (Joshua Youngblood, 2019 at Texas Tech and vs. Iowa State).

• K-State went on a 19-play drive toward the end of the first half... It was tied for the third-longest drive in school history in terms of plays... The drive spanned 8:49 of game clock, tied for the sixth-longest drive in terms of time in school history.

K-STATE CAN'T COMPLETE COMEBACK

MANHATTAN, Kan. — Kansas State was unable to cap its Hall of Fame weekend with a victory over No. 6 Oklahoma. But Skylar Thompson was magnificent after missing two games due to injury. The sixth-year senior threw for 320 yards and three touchdowns in a 37-31 loss that featured an impressive fight by the Wildcats.

K-State trailed by as many as 34-17 with 9 minutes remaining in the game, but comebacks had been nothing new against the Sooners. The Wildcats trailed 28-7 midway through the third quarter in last season's 38-35 victory. This time turned out different.

Whereas K-State defeated No. 3 Oklahoma in 2020 and the fifth-ranked Sooners (48-41) in 2019, the Wildcats fell just short of defeating Oklahoma three-straight years for the first time in school history. Miami (1985-87) remains the last school to defeat Oklahoma three straight years when the Sooners were ranked in the top 10 each game.

Thompson did all that he could for K-State to make a major statement in his first action since suffering a knee injury against Southern Illinois on September 11. He showed no rust after missing a win over Nevada and a 31-20 loss at Oklahoma State in the Big 12 opener, and his initial trot onto the field to make his 33rd career start — the most by a K-State quarterback in at least 31 years — drew deafening cheers from the crowd of 47,690 eager for his return.

Leading an offense that outgained Oklahoma 420-392, Thompson completed 29 of 41 passes without throwing an interception while slinging the ball to eight different targets. He even chased down an Oklahoma defender 70 yards to make a score-saving tackle after a fumble by running back Jacardia Wright. Thompson put himself out there for the Wildcats, who played with energy for their team leader. K-State was aggressive, went 8-for-15 on third downs, and 4-of-5 on fourth downs.

While Vaughn recorded the most receptions by a K-State player in the last three years, Phillip Brooks had 6 catches for 55 yards and 1 touchdown as well. One of the game balls afterward probably ended up in the hands of senior wide receiver Landry Weber, who had his best game with four catches for 43 yards and 1 touchdown.

His score came on a 6-yard pass from Thompson in the fourth quarter, as the Wildcats began their climb back from a 34-17 deficit to make this one another nail biter. The tension only grew when Malik Knowles returned a kickoff 93 yards for a score and the Wildcats suddenly trailed 37-31 with 80 seconds remaining. But Oklahoma recovered the onside kick and ran out the clock.

Oklahoma won its fourth close game of the season. Spencer Rattler completed 22 of 25 passes for 243 yards with 2 touchdowns and 1 interception. Kennedy Brooks had 15 rushes for 91 yards and one touchdown. Marvin Mims had four catches for 71 yards.

► Game Notes

• The contest was the 105th all-time meeting between Kansas State and Iowa State, which is the eighth-longest uninterrupted series in FBS history... Iowa State holds a 52-49-4 series lead... The Cyclones won for a second-straight season, the first time in the series they have won consecutive games since 2004 and 2005... Iowa State became the first road team to win in the series since K-State won in Ames in 2016.

• Quarterback Skylar Thompson made the 34th start of his career, which extended his K-State-best mark since 1990... Thompson threw for 206 yards and two touchdowns on 15-of-23 passing, while he had a rushing touchdown... Thompson now has 35 career touchdown passes to rank fifth in school history... He has now been responsible for 60 career touchdowns, which ranks fourth in school history... Thompson improved his career total offensive yards figure to 6,883 to rank fourth in school history.

• Sophomore running back Deuce Vaughn rushed 18 times for 87, while he caught three passes for 28 yards... He now has 48 career receptions, which ranks ninth in school history among running backs or fullbacks.

CYCLONES TOP CATS, 33-20

MANHATTAN, Kan. — Kansas State found itself playing from behind after Iowa State's very first play from scrimmage, suffered sweeping frustration in all three phases of the game, and proved unable to keep running back Breece Hall from enjoying the best game of his career in a 33-20 loss. It was the Wildcats' first home loss to the Cyclones since 2004.

Hall rushed for a career-high 197 yards on 30 carries and scored his first of two touchdowns just 12 seconds into the game when he bounced outside and raced 75 yards into the end zone, quieting a crowd that saw the Wildcats, 3-3 overall and 0-3 in the Big 12 Conference.

After winning 10 straight in the series, K-State has lost two straight against Iowa State for the first time in 16 years. After starting this season at 3-0 and ranked No. 25 in the Associated Press Poll, the Wildcats have suffered their bumps against arguably the top three teams in the league in Oklahoma State, Oklahoma, and Iowa State.

The Wildcats' inability to slow one of the top rushers in the nation served as only one frustration in a contest that featured inconsistencies on offense, defense, and special teams. K-State struggled to execute the big play, couldn't prevent lengthy Iowa State drives, and a normally excellent kicking game endured a missed field goal and extra point.

K-State did gain 342 total yards against Iowa State, which entered the game allowing a modest 234.2 yards per game, but the Wildcats were inconsistent in the first half and saw their deficit swell. The Cyclones, 4-2 and 2-1, who ranked no worse than No. 11 nationally in the four major defensive categories — total defense, scoring defense, rushing defense, and passing defense — clamped down while their offense thumped the Wildcats.

The Wildcats trailed 30-13 in the fourth quarter before they finally were able to strike for the first time in the second half. Thompson threw a 9-yard touchdown pass to Malik Knowles, who raced left to right inside the end zone, and was able to secure the football after cornerback T.J. Tampa tipped it before sailing out of bounds.

Thompson went 15 of 23 passing for 206 yards with 2 touchdowns and 1 interception, and Deuce Vaughn had 87 yards on 18 carries but could never quite escape the last defender. When Thompson late in the first quarter hit Phillip Brooks on their longest play of the game — a 40-yard scoring strike as Brooks caught the pass in stride and reached the front of the end zone — the Wildcats could never knot it up.

K-State had a chance to potentially take the lead early in the second quarter when Brooks leaned down to catch a short pass and then turned upfield for a 20-yard gain to the 7-yard line. Officials wiped away Brooks' catch upon replay when they ruled that the ball hit the ground.

The Wildcats then missed a 43-yard field goal wide right to dash any possible momentum.

K-State sabotaged itself early in the third quarter as Iowa State, which led 20-7 at halftime, churned out the longest drive against the Wildcats all season. Facing third-and-12 at the K-State 23-yard line, Purdy threw an incompleteness, but the defense was penalized for having 12 players on the field.

That gave the Cyclones new life and their 18-play, 93-yard drive that consumed 10 minutes, 2 seconds slowly drained the life out of the Wildcats, who had not allowed an opponent to hold the ball for at least 10 minutes on any possession since at least 1999.

► Game Notes

• Quarterback Skylar Thompson made the 35th start of his career, which extended his school-best mark since 1990... Thompson threw for 306 yards — the third 300-yard game of his career — and a touchdown on 24-of-30 passing... During the game, he became the first player in school history to pass for 6,000 yards and rush for 1,000 yards in a career.

• Skylar Thompson completed 24-of-30 passes, good for an 80% completion percentage... It was the highest of his career, bettering a 76.9% mark he accomplished in 2017 against Iowa State and in 2019 against Bowling Green

• Sophomore running back Deuce Vaughn rushed 15 times for 51 yards and two touchdowns, while he caught a team-high seven passes for 68 yards and a score... It was the third time in his career he had at least one rushing and one receiving touchdown, the other two being last year against Texas Tech and Baylor... It was his third-career multi-rushing touchdown game.

• During the game, Deuce Vaughn became the third player in school history to his 2,000 career all-purpose yards prior to the end of his sophomore season, joining Tyler Lockett and Darren Sproles... However, Vaughn accomplished the feat in his 17th career game to be the quickest among the three (Lockett: 18 games; Sproles: 19).

• Sophomore defensive end Felix Anudike-Uzomah tallied a safety by tackling a Red Raider running back in the end zone in the third quarter... It was the Wildcats' first safety via a tackle in the end zone since Steven Cline did so against Missouri in 2005... It was the first safety overall by the Wildcats since blocking a punt out of the back of the end zone vs. Texas Tech in 2018.

BIG SECOND HALF LIFTS CATS AT TEXAS TECH

LUBBOCK, Texas — Kansas State used a fourth-quarter touchdown reception by running back Deuce Vaughn to take a 25-24 lead and recorded back-to-back sacks on Texas Tech quarterback Henry Colombi in the final 2 minutes to capture its first Big 12 Conference victory of the season in sizzling style before a stunned crowd at Jones AT&T Stadium.

K-State trailed 24-10 at halftime and appeared to be on the ropes after the Red Raiders took a commanding 14-0 lead less than 4 minutes into the game. But K-State fought back to claim its sixth straight win in the series with a statement performance that put to bed a frustrating start to its league season.

Skylar Thompson completed 24 of 30 passes for 306 yards and 1 touchdown, and his scoring toss came on a 22-yard pass to Vaughn that proved to be the game winner with 6 minutes, 9 seconds left, capping a dramatic comeback dampened by a season-high 12 penalties and a few long plays early by the Red Raiders.

The Wildcats, who had suffered through a mound of frustration caused by unforced errors against Oklahoma State, Oklahoma, and Iowa State, didn't play a perfect game, but they grabbed the momentum in the second half and shutout the Colombi and the Red Raiders in the fourth quarter when they most needed to make stops.

Colombi went 10 of 17 for 148 yards with 1 interception, and the Red Raiders, who entered the game leading the FBS with 17 plays from scrimmage longer than 40 yards, tried to knockout the Wildcats early with their big-play capabilities. They had rushes of 30 and 45 yards and passes of 40 and 48 yards in the first half.

However, the Wildcats wouldn't be stopped, clawed their way back, and took their first lead in 10 quarters in highlight style.

Thompson led the Wildcats 44 yards in eight plays before he unleashed arguably his prettiest pass of the game. Thompson carried out a play-action fake and lobbed a 22-yard pass to Vaughn, who made an over-the-shoulder catch about five steps in front of linebacker Riko Jeffers and ran the final five yards into the end zone with 6:09 to give the Wildcats a 25-24 a lead of the game.

Although the Wildcats failed on their 2-point conversion, meaning Texas Tech could win the game with a field goal, the Red Raiders came up empty on their final two drives, both of which ended with unsuccessful fourth-down conversions.

Thompson, who became the first player in school history to reach 6,000 passing yards and 1,000 rushing yards in a career, was animated after the game.

K-State's comeback began in the third quarter, which hadn't been a kind quarter for the Wildcats. K-State had scored just 17 points in the third quarter this season — it managed 2 touchdowns and 1 field goal in six games — but that changed when Felix Anudike-Uzomah tackled running back SaRodorick Thompson in the end zone for a safety after a brilliant 63-yard punt by Ty Zentner that pinned the Red Raiders deep. It marked the first time since 2005 that K-State recorded a safety by a tackle.

► Game Notes

• Felix Anudike-Uzomah registered 4.0 sacks on Saturday to tie the K-State record... he tied with Chris Johnson, who had 4.0 sacks at Missouri in 2000... Anudike-Uzomah had sacks on back-to-back plays to end the first half and the first play of the second half... Anudike-Uzomah and Johnson are the only players in school history to have sacks on three-straight defensive plays, as the latter also did so in his 4.0-sack game at Missouri in 2000.

• Quarterback Skylar Thompson moved into second place in school history in career passing yards, a mark that now stands at 6,335 yards... Over his last four games, he has totaled 1,074 passing yards as he is the first K-State signal caller with over 1,000 yards in a four-game stretch since Jake Waters' final four games of his career in 2014... He now has 37 passing touchdowns in his career, which is tied for third in school history... He now has 26 career rushing touchdowns to tie for third in school history among quarterbacks... Thompson improved his career total offensive yardage total to 7,443 yards to rank third in school history.

• Sophomore running back Deuce Vaughn rushed 20 times for 109 yards and two touchdowns to go along with two catches for 49 yards... It was his fourth 100-yard game of the season and seventh of his career, one game shy of entering the school's top 10 list in both categories... Vaughn has now scored 72 points this season, tied for the fourth most in school history among sophomores... His career rushing yardage total is now 1,346 career rushing yards, moving from 24th to 21st in school history with Saturday's performance... He now has 2,276 all-purpose yards in his career, moving from 30th to 26th in school history.

ANUDIKE-UZOMAH TIES RECORD AS CATS TOP TCU

MANHATTAN, Kan. — Kansas State scored on four of its first five possessions and held TCU without a first-half touchdown, and sophomore defensive end Felix Anudike-Uzomah tied a school record with four sacks as the Wildcats won their homecoming game 31-12 at Bill Snyder Family Stadium.

One week after Anudike-Uzomah tackled Texas Tech running back SaRodorick Thompson for a safety, the 6-foot-3, 255-pound native of Kansas City, Missouri, tied K-State's record of four sacks, set by Chris Johnson against Missouri in 2000. Anudike-Uzomah now has 10 sacks, which rank among the most in the Football Bowl Subdivision.

It was originally believed that Anudike-Uzomah tied the FBS record with 6 sacks. However, two of his sacks were nullified by NCAA rules, as on each play he forced a fumble that was recovered beyond the original line of scrimmage, thus making each play result in a rush.

Still, in one of the more impressive individual performances by a K-State defensive player in a game, Anudike-Uzomah made a statement and the Wildcats, 5-3 overall and 2-3 in the Big 12 Conference, stomped the Horned Frogs, 3-5 and 1-4. It marked the Wildcats' third straight win in the series and their most complete game of the season.

Thompson completed 13 of 21 passes for 242 yards and 1 touchdown and 1 interception to go along with 5 carries for 18 yards and one score while pass catchers took turns gashing a TCU defense that has struggled this season. Thompson moved into second place all-time with 6,335 passing yards - he is tied for third with 37 passing touchdowns - and is tied for third among quarterbacks with 26 rushing touchdowns.

The final dagger arrived when Thompson threw a pop pass to tight end Daniel Imatorbhebhe and the 6-foot-4, 240-pound senior transfer rumbled 73 yards down the middle of the field for a touchdown on the longest play from scrimmage for the Wildcats this season with 14:49 remaining in the fourth quarter. K-State led 28-5 and the rout was on. Chris Tennant ended the scoring with a 42-yard field goal.

Deuce Vaughn caught a 41-yard pass to set up Thompson on a 4-yard run for the opening score, then he raced 42 yards for a touchdown and a 14-3 lead. Phillip Brooks caught a 37-yard pass to set up another score as the Wildcats built a 21-5 advantage going into the half.

Vaughn took to the air for the Wildcats' final score of the half. Brooks was ruled down at 1 yard line following his long catch. On the next play, Vaughn took the handoff and leaped over TCU linebackers Jamoi Hodge and Dee Winters before flipping over in the end zone, prompting roars from the crowd.

TCU scored its only points in the first half on a 24-yard field goal off a Thompson interception, and then it scored a safety when it tackled Vaughn before he could get out of the end zone after the Wildcats stopped the Horned Frogs short inside the 2 on fourth down. It marked the first time TCU had failed to score inside the red zone this season. K-State twice held TCU scoreless inside the 20-yard line.

K-State outgained TCU 388-340 in total yards. The Wildcats defense proved effective limiting a TCU offense that ranked 27th in total yards (450.4) and rushing yards 21st (216.3). TCU finished with 156 rushing yards.

Since starting the Big 12 season at 0-3 against No. 15 Oklahoma State, No. 4 Oklahoma and No. 22 Iowa State, the Wildcats have won two in a row with a previous 25-24 win at Texas Tech. K-State's strength of schedule ranked No. 2 in the Sagarin Ratings entering the week.

► Game Notes

• K-State picked up its 13th-consecutive victory over Kansas to improve the longest streak in the series by either team... Among active uninterrupted winning streaks (must have played and won every year) in the FBS, the Wildcats' 13-game streak over KU is tied for fourth in the FBS... K-State has now won 25 of the last 29 meetings dating back to 1993, including a 12-3 mark in Lawrence... The Wildcats have also won seven-straight games in Lawrence dating back to 2010.

• Deuce Vaughn rushed 11 times for a career-high 162 yards and three touchdowns... He averaged 14.7 yards per carry on Saturday, which ranks third in school history for a game (minimum 10 carries)... It was his fifth 100-yard rushing game of the season, which is tied for eighth in school history... It was the eighth of his career, which is tied for ninth in K-State history... It was the most rushing yards by a Wildcat since Alex Barnes went for 184 at Iowa State in 2018.

• Deuce Vaughn's performance included a career-long 80-yard touchdown rush on the first play of the second half... It was tied for the seventh-longest rush in school history... It was the longest rush by a Wildcat since Will Howard went 80 yards last year at TCU... The 80-yard touchdown was the longest touchdown run by a Wildcat since John Hubert went 95 yards against Missouri State in 2012... It was the first time the Wildcats scored on the first play of a second half since doing so against Texas A&M in 2009.

• Skylar Thompson made the 37th start of his career, which extended his school-best mark since 1990... Kansas State won for the 22nd time in Thompson's 37 starts, tying the wins record among K-State starting quarterbacks since 1990.

CATS CRUISE TO SUNFLOWER SHOWDOWN WIN

LAWRENCE, Kan. — Kansas State running back Deuce Vaughn rushed for a career-high 162 yards and 3 touchdowns, Skylar Thompson passed for 244 yards and one score, and the Wildcats continued their domination over Kansas in a 35-10 victory to gain bowl eligibility at Memorial Stadium.

Vaughn had 69 rushing yards and 1 touchdown before he took a handoff and raced down the sideline 80 yards for the longest rush of his career just 15 seconds into the third quarter. He finished with 11 carries and averaged 14.7 yards per rushing attempt, the third highest average in school history. He had runs of 29, 10, 19 and 15 yards over the first two quarters, as the Wildcats raced out to a 21-3 lead at halftime.

The Wildcats scored touchdowns on three of their first four possessions and the game was never in doubt.

The 5-foot-6, 173-pound Vaughn finished with 232 total yards — he also had 6 catches for 70 yards — and his rushing total was the most since Alex Barnes had 250 yards at Baylor in 2018. Vaughn's previous high for rushing was 127 yards earlier in the season against Nevada.

Vaughn gained 200 total yards before the Jayhawks took their first snap of the second half. He entered the day ranked third in the nation in career all-purpose yards at 126.44 per game and ranked second in the nation among running backs with 785 receiving yards since 2020.

K-State improved to 6-3 overall and 3-3 in the Big 12 Conference by winning its third straight game, and its 13th straight over the Jayhawks. It marks the longest winning streak by either team in series that featured its 119th all-time meeting.

Thompson commanded an offense that rolled to 499 total yards while he continued to extend the best stretch of his career. Thompson completed 19 of 24 passes for 244 yards and 1 touchdown, including a 68-yard scoring strike to wide receiver Malik Knowles for the Wildcats' second touchdown of the first quarter.

Thompson earned the 22nd win of his career, tying Michael Bishop, Eli Roberson and Collin Klein for most wins by a K-State starting quarterback since 1990.

He had plenty of time to throw and expertly identified open receivers with ease, connecting with 11 pass catchers and averaging 12.8 yards per completion. A scary moment arrived when linebacker Gavin Potter levied a late hit on Thompson as he scrambled out of bounds inside the red zone along the K-State sideline with 11:52 left in the game. Thompson remained on the ground for several seconds before returning to the huddle. The penalty gave the Wildcats the ball at the 3.

Just two plays later, K-State delivered the knockout blow as Vaughn rolled head over heels into the end zone from one yard out for a 35-10 advantage.

K-State finished with 257 passing yards and 242 rushing yards for its most balanced offensive effort this season.

Meanwhile, the Sunflower Showdown couldn't be much more lopsided. Since 1993, K-State has posted a 25-4 record in the series, including an 12-3 mark in Lawrence. Over the stretch, K-State has outscored KU 1,095 points to 433. K-State has scored 129 touchdowns and Kansas has scored 50. K-State has also outgained Kansas 11,894 yards to 8,235 in those games. During seven straight wins in Lawrence, K-State has outscored Kansas 302 to 92.

► Game Notes

• K-State broke a five-game losing skid to WVU, defeating the Mountaineers for the first time since the 2015 series finale... The Wildcats tied the series between the two schools at 5-5 since WVU joined the Big 12 prior to the 2012 season.

• K-State picked up seventh win of the year, the second time in head coach Chris Klieman's three years at the helm that the Wildcats won at least seven games... He is the first coach in school history to lead K-State to at least seven wins in two of his first three seasons... It is the Wildcats' 21st season with at least seven wins in the last 31 years.

• Ty Bowman blocked a West Virginia punt, which was recovered and returned for a touchdown by Marvin Martin... It was K-State's first blocked punt since Seth Porter had one last year against Texas Tech, but it was the first returned for a touchdown since Morgan Burns did so at Kansas in 2015... K-State now has 125 non-offensive touchdowns since 1999 and 58 combined kickoff- and punt-return touchdowns since 2005, the most in the nation in both categories.

• Kansas State won for the 23rd time in Skylar Thompson's 38 starts, the most wins by a K-State starting quarterback since 1990... Thompson entered the game tied for the most with Michael Bishop (1997-98), Eli Roberson (2001-03) and Collin Klein (2010-12).

• Running back Deuce Vaughn rushed 25 times for 121 yards and a touchdown... It was his third-straight game with 100 rushing yards, his second three-game streak of the season... It is the first time a Wildcat had two three-game streaks of 100 rushing yards since Daniel Thomas in 2010.

CATS USE ALL THREE PHASES IN 34-17 WIN

MANHATTAN, Kan. — Skylar Thompson fired a 35-yard completion down the seam to tight end Sammy Wheeler on fourth down that led to a crucial score, and the Wildcats took the air out of a West Virginia comeback by holding on for a 34-17 victory, snapping a five-game skid to the Mountaineers.

K-State built a 24-3 lead early in the third quarter before West Virginia, 4-6 and 2-5, roared back with a pair of touchdowns. A 3-yard touchdown pass from Jarret Doege to Winston Wright on fourth down seemingly took away all the Wildcats' momentum. Trailing just 24-17, it appeared West Virginia threatened to snap the Wildcats' three-game winning streak against Big 12 Conference opponents.

Thompson drove K-State 24 yards on 6 plays, but it appeared the Wildcats, who faced fourth-and-8, would stall at the West Virginia 45. An unsuccessful fourth-down play would give West Virginia ideal field position. But Klieman had confidence in his sixth-year starting quarterback.

K-State entered the game third in the FBS in converting 84.62% of its fourth-down opportunities this season. With K-State facing fourth-and-8 at the West Virginia 39-yard line, Thompson waited for Wheeler to get past free safety Alonzo Addae for the long completion to the 4-yard line.

Running back Deuce Vaughn ran it in on the next play for a 31-17 lead with 7:22 left in the fourth quarter.

K-State defensive end Felix Anudike-Uzomah forced West Virginia's star running back Lедdie Brown to fumble on the following series and Chris Tennant booted a 25-yard field goal. Anudike-Uzomah leads the FBS with six forced fumbles this season and tied the K-State single-season record shared with former All-American Darren Howard (1999). Thompson earned his 23rd victory as a starting quarterback, the most by a K-State passer since at least 1990.

Vaughn recorded his sixth 100-yard rushing performance of the season in gaining 121 yards on 25 carries and one score. Wide receiver Phillip Brooks had 5 catches for 62 yards and Wheeler had 3 catches for 45 yards and 1 score — a 3-yard reception on the opening drive of the third quarter that gave the Wildcats their commanding 24-3 lead.

West Virginia outgained K-State 345-299 and scored a field goal and two touchdowns on three straight possessions between the second and third quarters, causing the crowd at Bill Snyder Family Stadium to grow uneasy. The lead dropped to just seven points at 24-17 with 12 minutes left in the fourth quarter.

The K-State defense and special teams keyed the Wildcats' attack early as Yeast intercepted a tipped pass that led to one touchdown, and Ty Bowman blocked a punt that Marvin Martin picked up and ran 7 yards into the end zone for another in taking a 14-0 advantage. It was the first time K-State returned a blocked punt for a score since 2015. K-State has 125 non-offensive touchdowns since 1999, which leads the FBS.

Jarret Doege went 27 of 45 for 268 yards and 2 touchdowns and 2 interceptions. Running back Lедdie Brown had 20 carries for 85 yards for the Mountaineers, who have lost five of their last seven games.

Game Notes

• Deuce Vaughn rushed for 128 yards and a touchdown on 11 carries... He improved his season rushing total to 1,115 yards to produce the 17th 1,000-yard rushing season in school history... It is the Wildcats' first 1,000-yard rushing season since Alex Barnes had 1,355 yards in 2018 to finish fourth in school history... Vaughn hit the mark on his 182nd carry of the season, which is tied for the fourth fastest to 1,000 yards in school history... He now ranks second in school history in rushing yards by a sophomore, becoming just the third sophomore in school history to hit the 1,000-yard mark... His rushing total included a 65-yard touchdown in the second quarter, the second-longest run of his career (80 at Kansas, 2021).

• Vaughn also moved up on many a few season and career statistical rankings on Saturday... It was his seventh 100-yard game this season, which is tied for third in school history... It was the 10th 100-yard game of his career, which is tied for fifth in school history... He has now rushed for 100 yards four-straight games, which is tied for the fifth-longest streak in school history... He now has 17 overall touchdowns this year, which is tied for sixth in school history... Vaughn also had five catches for 37 yards in the game... He now has 45 receptions this year, which is tie for fourth in school history among sophomores... He now has 70 receptions in his career, which ranks third in school history among running backs/fullbacks.

• Ross Elder carded 10 tackles, a new career high... His previous high was six on four different occasions last season... Daniel Green carded nine tackles, which included three tackles for loss and a sack... His three TFLs were a career high, bettering a trio of 2.5 efforts (2020 at Baylor, 2021 vs. TCU and 2021 at Kansas).

WIN STREAK HALTED IN LOSS TO BAYLOR

MANHATTAN, Kan. — For more than a month, Kansas State was able to power, scrap and take control of its opponents during its four-game winning streak. Those times reached a disappointing end in a 20-10 loss against No. 11 Baylor on Senior Day at Bill Snyder Family Stadium.

K-State managed one touchdown and one field goal against a Baylor team that entered the contest carrying a reputation for holding down offenses. One week prior, the Bears held No. 4 Oklahoma to 14 points, its lowest total in a game since 2014. The Wildcats were hungry to send out 32 players with lasting memories of their final home game in Manhattan. These weren't the lasting memories they intended.

As if the evening couldn't have gotten worse, sixth-year senior quarterback Skylar Thompson in his final home game was helped to the sideline, then the injury tent, and then was carted to the locker room with 4 minutes, 4 seconds remaining in the fourth quarter after he appeared to grab his left calf following a shovel pass to Phillip Brooks in the middle of the field. Thompson has 7,952 total offensive yards, second most in school history.

Jaren Lewis entered the game and threw an interception. Baylor ran out the clock for its first road win since September 18.

Thompson completed 15 of 29 passes for 158 yards for the Wildcats, while an unsuspecting star in redshirt freshman quarterback Blake Shapen emerged for the Bears.

Just as Baylor did during 27-14 win over No. 4 Oklahoma last week, the Bears defense suffocated the Wildcats. Baylor outgained K-State 402-263, got to Thompson multiple times, and did about everything besides shutdown K-State sophomore running back Deuce Vaughn, who enjoyed his seventh 100-yard effort on the ground this season.

It wasn't until Thompson threaded a pass to Malik Knowles for a 48-yard completion in the fourth quarter that the Wildcats were able to manufacture a long gain through the air. K-State trailed 20-10 at that point but got the fans into the contest. But even then, the Wildcats saw another promising scoring drive halted — this one resulting in a missed 39-yard field goal with 9:25 remaining in the game.

Neither team reached the end zone in the final two quarters, but Baylor held the football for 35:54 overall in the game and converted 3 of 5 times on fourth down.

The shining light for the Wildcats in a game shrouded in frustration came in Vaughn's performance. Vaughn had 128 yards on 11 carries and 1 touchdown. He eclipsed 1,000 rushing yards for the season on his third carry of the contest — a 6-yard scamper late in the first quarter. However, Baylor's defense, which swarmed the Wildcats most of the first half, snuffed out another drive and forced a punt.

Vaughn led K-State with 5 catches for 37 yards but carried regrets off the field.

The biggest question for Baylor was how it would replace starting quarterback Gerry Bohanon, who went down in the second quarter. However, Shapen came off the sideline and went 16 of 21 passing for 137 yards while finding a variety of targets and proved unflappable in the pocket. Trestan Ebner had 12 carries for 86 yards and 1 touchdown and added 7 catches for 27 yards. Abram Smith had 21 carries for 46 yards.

Field Goals	1-1	3-3

► Game Notes

• K-State broke a five-game losing skid to WVU, defeating the Mountaineers for the first time since the 2015 series finale... The Wildcats tied the series between the two schools at 5-5 since WVU joined the Big 12 prior to the 2012 season.

• K-State picked up seventh win of the year, the second time in head coach Chris Klieman's three years at the helm that the Wildcats won at least seven games... He is the first coach in school history to lead K-State to at least seven wins in two of his first three seasons... It is the Wildcats' 21st season with at least seven wins in the last 31 years.

• Ty Bowman blocked a West Virginia punt, which was recovered and returned for a touchdown by Marvin Martin... It was K-State's first blocked punt since Seth Porter had one last year against Texas Tech, but it was the first returned for a touchdown since Morgan Burns did so at Kansas in 2015... K-State now has 125 non-offensive touchdowns since 1999 and 58 combined kickoff- and punt-return touchdowns since 2005, the most in the nation in both categories.

• Kansas State won for the 23rd time in Skylar Thompson's 38 starts, the most wins by a K-State starting quarterback since 1990... Thompson entered the game tied for the most with Michael Bishop (1997-98), Eli Roberson (2001-03) and Collin Klein (2010-12).

• Running back Deuce Vaughn rushed 25 times for 121 yards and a touchdown... It was his third-straight game with 100 rushing yards, his second three-game streak of the season... It is the first time a Wildcat had two three-game streaks of 100 rushing yards since Daniel Thomas in 2010.

LONGHORNS RUN PAST WILDCATS

AUSTIN, Texas — Kansas State running back Deuce Vaughn rushed for 143 yards and a touchdown, but a struggling offense failed to convert on fourth-and-1 on back-to-back possessions in the fourth quarter, and the Wildcats suffered a 22-17 loss to Texas in the final game of the regular season.

K-State finished 1-for-9 on third down and 0-for-2 on fourth down, and none proved more costly than when Texas stopped the Wildcats on third-and-1 and fourth-and-1 at the Longhorns' 17-yard line with 4 minutes, 3 seconds left in the fourth quarter.

Sophomore Will Howard made his third start of the season and first since at Oklahoma State on September 25 in place of injured sixth-year senior starter Skylar Thompson, who was dressed and on the sideline. Howard completed 9 of 13 passes for 65 yards and had 82 rushing yards on 8 carries and 1 touchdown — a 71-yard scoring run in the second quarter, as the Wildcats took a 14-13 lead.

However, K-State, 7-5 overall and 4-5 in the Big 12, was largely quiet from there. Their final score came when Chris Tennant hit a career-long 51-yard field goal for a 17-13 lead with 1:56 left in the second quarter.

Vaughn had 24 carries for 143 yards and 1 touchdown when he ran 9 yards down the sideline into the end zone for the Wildcats' first score with 4:44 left in the first quarter. He's just the third K-State player to reach 100 rushing yards in five straight games joining Darren Sproles (2002 and 2003) and Isaac Jackson (1973). Vaughn's 108 points scored this season are most in school history by a sophomore and the 10th most in school history overall.

No other Big 12 Conference team outscored opponents better in the fourth quarter than K-State. No league team likely had more tough luck in the fourth quarter than Texas, which saw leads dissolve with regularity during a disappointing season.

But K-State, which led 17-16 at halftime, was unable to produce any points down the stretch while Texas kicker Cameron Dicker punched in a pair of field goals of 39 and 22 yards, which provided the final margin for the Longhorns, 5-7 and 3-6, who snapped a six-game losing skid, their longest since 1956. K-State has now lost five straight to Texas and hasn't won in Austin since a 17-13 victory in 2011.

Texas allowed an average of 32.4 points per game, near the bottom of the league, but for a second straight game the Wildcats were unable to score in the second half. K-State, which earlier in the league season won four straight games, ended the regular season with consecutive losses against the Bears and the Longhorns.

K-State entered the game outscoring its opponents 98-40 in the fourth quarter, the best in the Big 12, but were largely ineffective in the second half with two of five drives going three-and-out, and another drive traveling 16 yards on four plays, before the Wildcats scrambled in the final seconds of their final possession.

Texas outgained K-State 381-293 and behind 209 rushing yards. That included 179 rushing yards on 31 carries and 1 touchdown from Roschon Johnson, who operated largely out of the Wildcat formation. Quarterback Casey Thompson went 17 of 23 passing for 170 yards and 1 touchdown and 1 interception. The Longhorns converted 8 of 16 times on third down.

Game Notes

• K-State won its third bowl game in the last four tries, the first time they have accomplished that feat since 1999-2002... The current run includes wins in the 2016 Texas Bowl (33-28 over Texas A&M) and 2017 Cactus Bowl (35-17).

• Kansas State produced its 21st season of at least eight wins with 19 of those coming since 1993, including the 2019 season... Head coach Chris Klieman is the first coach in school history to lead his team to a pair of eight-win seasons in his first three campaigns.

• K-State placed highly in its bowl records: 42 points to rank third; 22 point margin of victory to rank third; 21 points in the first half to tie for fourth; 22 first downs to tie for fifth; 442 total offensive yards to rank fifth.

• In terms of individual marks: Deuce Vaughn's 24 total points set a school bowl record; Vaughn's three rushing touchdowns tied the school bowl record; Vaughn's 146 rushing yards were the third most; Vaughn's long run of 48 yards ranked fourth; Skylar Thompson's 21 completions tied for second; Thompson's 75.0% completion mark tied for second; Thompson's three touchdown passes tied for third; Thompson's 259 passing yards ranked sixth; Thompson's 28 pass attempts tied for eighth; Thompson's 269 total offensive yards ranked ninth; Malik Knowles' 3 touchdown catches tied for third; Ross Elder's 11 tackles tied for seventh; Elder's 1 interception tied for third; Russ Yeast's 1 interception tied for third.

• Quarterback Skylar Thompson made the 40th and final start of his career, the most by any K-State quarterback since at least 1990... The Wildcats won for a 24th time in Thompson's 40 starts, also a school-best mark since 1990... He finished 2021 with a completion percentage of 69.53 to set a new school record.

K-STATE DOMINATES LSU IN TEXAS BOWL

HOUSTON, Texas — It was a purple party at the TaxAct Texas Bowl, but by the start of the fourth quarter, the purple and white overtook NRG Stadium as Kansas State headed toward its first bowl victory under Chris Klieman by handing LSU a 42-20 whipping, marking one of the most dominant bowl victories in school history.

As Klieman and sixth-year senior Skylar Thompson took the victor's podium, the head coach and quarterback lifted the 135-pound Texas Bowl trophy above their heads, as cheers rang out from coaches, teammates, families, friends, and the purple sea of fans, many who journeyed through snowy conditions to bask in that glow that accompanies made-for-TV moments, and that will no doubt turn into cherished memories that K-Staters share long past the melting snow in the Flint Hills.

As K-State scored the first 21 points and then took a 42-7 lead late into the fourth quarter, the K-State Marching Band began their familiar tradition and serenaded a yellow-and-purple mass exodus to "Happy Trails" with 10 minutes and 15 seconds still remaining in the game, and the countdown to donning bowl championship T-shirts began. Shortly after, Thompson ambled to the sideline one final time to ardent applause and adoring chants, and any pregame nervousness of Wildcat Nation dissolved into hands gripping each moment as the final climatic sights and sounds of the 2021 season began to slowly slip into that fuzzy dream from which folks never want to awake.

K-State dominated this from the start behind an aggressive offense that rolled to 442 total yards, engineered the longest drive in Texas Bowl history — an 18-play, 71-yard jaunt that took 9 minutes and 16 seconds — and in front of a crowd of 52,207 methodically dismantled an SEC opponent short on a few players yet just two years removed from winning the College Football Playoff National Championship. K-State scored touchdowns on 6 of its 9 possessions.

When Thompson wasn't slinging touchdown passes against the Tigers (the bowl MVP completed 21 of 28 passes for 259 yards and 3 touchdowns), Consensus All-American Deuce Vaughn was leaving defenders puzzled (21 carries for 146 yards and 3 touchdowns to go along with 1 receiving touchdown), and an energized defense stiffened against the Tigers until all that was left was the postgame celebration.

Oh, Thompson and Vaughn also had help. Junior wide receiver Phillip Brooks had 5 catches for 69 yards, and junior wide receiver Malik Knowles had 3 catches for 42 yards and 2 touchdowns. Thompson capped an 11-play, 75-yard opening drive by hitting Malik Knowles for a 25-yard touchdown. Knowles slanted outside to catch a 10-yard pass, then slipped a defender, sprinted down the sideline and dived past the outstretched arms of cornerback DaMarius McGhee to get the ball past the pylon.

It was a brilliant move by Knowles, who had caught two touchdowns all season and turned in arguably his most athletic reception of the season to get the Wildcats off to an ideal start.

When it was time for K-State's defense to spring into action, senior First Team All-Big 12 safety Russ Yeast responded. Yeast stepped in front of a Jontre Kirklins pass for his fourth interception of the season. Then Thompson took the Wildcats 43 yards downfield and connected with Knowles again from 6 yards out to make it 21-0.

Senior safety Ross Elder led the team with 11 tackles and 1 interception. Junior linebacker Daniel Green and sixth-year senior linebacker Cody Fletcher each had 6 tackles for a defense that surrendered just 152 total yards on 31 over the first three quarters and 308 yards overall.

DARREN SPROLES

Running Back • 2001-04 • Class of 2021

One of the most electric and prolific runners in college football history who ranks as Kansas State's all-time leading rusher and holds more than 20 school and conference records, Darren Sproles was enshrined in the College Football Hall of Fame in 2021.

A First Team All-American in 2003, Sproles finished fifth in the Heisman Trophy voting after leading the nation with 1,986 rushing yards. A three-time All-Big 12 performer, he earned first team honors in 2003 and 2004 and second team accolades in 2002. In 2003, Sproles led K-State to the Big 12 title – its first conference title since 1934 – after posting 345 all-purpose yards, catching a 60-yard touchdown pass and rushing for a Big 12 Championship Game record 235 yards in an upset win over No. 1 Oklahoma. One of three finalists for the 2003 AP Player of the Year, he earned Honorable Mention All-America honors in 2002, and he led the FBS in all-purpose yards (2,067) in 2004. The 2003 Doak Walker Award finalist led the Wildcats to three postseason berths, including a win in the 2002 Holiday Bowl, and two top-15 finishes in 2002 (No. 7) and 2003 (No. 14).

Sproles finished his career 11th all-time in rushing and sixth all-time in all-purpose yards in NCAA history. A member of the K-State Football Ring of Honor, he left Manhattan with 28 single-game, single-season or career records, 21 of which are still standing. The senior team captain boasts program career records for rushing yards (4,979), all-purpose yards (6,812), rushing attempts (815), rushing yards per carry (6.11), 100-yard rushing games (24) and consecutive 100-yard rushing games (10). Sproles still holds three of the top five single-season rushing performances in school history, including the top mark of 1,986 in 2003. His 2,735 all-purpose yards in 2003 are a Big 12 and K-State single-season record, and he also holds conference records for career 100-yard games and career all-purpose yards.

A fourth-round pick by the San Diego Chargers in the 2005 NFL Draft, Sproles played 15 seasons in the league with the Chargers (2005-10), New Orleans Saints (2011-13) and Philadelphia Eagles (2014-19). The three-time Pro Bowl selection was a member of the Eagles team that won Super Bowl LII. Currently ranked sixth in NFL history with 19,696 all-purpose yards, Sproles set the single-season league record with 2,696 in 2011.

BILL SNYDER

Head Coach • 1989-2004, 2009-2018 • Class of 2015

Bill Snyder, the architect of the "greatest turnaround in the history of college football," became just the fourth person in the history of college football to be inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame as an active coach as the legendary K-State coach was part of the National Football Foundation's College Football Hall of Fame Induction Class of 2015.

A five-time national coach of the year honoree and seven-time conference coach of the year recipient, Snyder compiled an amazing 215-117-1 record in his 27 years as the helm of the Wildcat program, leaving as the 20th winningest coach in FBS history. Called the "coach of the century" by hall of fame coach Barry Switzer, Snyder's accomplishments at K-State were nearly unthinkable considering what he inherited during his first tour of duty beginning in 1989. The Wildcat program was in the midst of an 0-26-1 run when he was hired and had been just one bowl game in its first 93 seasons. During a the span of 11-straight bowl seasons (1993-2003), Snyder's Wildcats won nearly 80 percent of their games, chalking up 109 victories – a staggering 10 wins per season – and making K-State the nation's second winningest program over that period. His first tenure included a Big 12 Championship in 2003 in a 35-7 win over No. 1 Oklahoma, while his 1998 team held a No. 1 ranking.

The 14th fastest coach in college football history to win 100 games at the time of his induction, Snyder was a three-time Big Eight and four-time Big 12 Coach of the Year, and he took home almost every major college football coaching award after the 1998 season, including those presented by Walter Camp and the Associated Press.

Following a three-year hiatus, Snyder returned to the sidelines in 2009, and it was more of the same as his teams accumulated a 79-49 record and eight bowl berths in his final 10 seasons.

Included in the second tenure was a pair of 10-win campaigns in 2011 (10-3) and 2012 (11-2). The 2012 Wildcats captured the program's second Big 12 Championship and held another No. 1 national ranking. After turning 75 years old on Oct. 7, 2014 – which qualified him to be included on the 2015 ballot – Snyder's team promptly traveled to No. 11 Oklahoma and pulled out a 31-30 victory, a key component of the Wildcats' nine-win season in 2014.

MARK SIMONEAU

Linebacker • 1996-99 • Class of 2012

Former Consensus All-American Mark Simoneau became just the second Wildcat football player to be elected to the Hall of Fame as he was enshrined as a member of the Class of 2012.

A two-time All-American, Simoneau stands as possibly the greatest defender in Kansas State history. A three-time team captain, Simoneau holds a school record with 251 career unassisted tackles, ranks third in school history with 400 total tackles, 52 tackles for loss and eight forced fumbles. The 1999 Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year also notched 15.5 sacks and seven fumble recoveries.

A 1999 Butkus Award runner-up and a three-time First Team All-Big 12 selection, he led Kansas State to one of the greatest stretches in school history. With Simoneau on the roster, the Wildcats earned a 42-7 record, which included a 28-4 mark in Big 12 play, a claim to two Big 12 North titles, three AP top 10 finishes, the first No. 1 ranking in school history, and wins in the 1997 Fiesta Bowl and the 1999 Holiday Bowl. He became the school's seventh Consensus All-American when he earned the nod in 1999.

Drafted in the third round of the 2000 NFL Draft, Simoneau played 11 seasons for the Atlanta Falcons, Philadelphia Eagles, New Orleans Saints and Kansas City Chiefs. He recorded 370 total tackles in 124 career NFL games.

GARY SPANI

Linebacker • 1974-77 • Class of 2002

Gary Spani became the first K-State player to be inducted to the College Football Hall of Fame in 2002. A member of the K-State Sports Hall of Fame (2000) and the Kansas Sports Hall of Fame (2004), Spani was Kansas State's first-ever consensus All-American in 1977, and also was a three-time All-Big-8 Conference selection. Additionally, Spani was Heisman Trophy Linebacker Award finalist and was named defensive MVP in both the East-West Shrine Game and the Japan Bowl.

Spani led the Wildcats in tackles in three-straight seasons and was twice named the team's most valuable player. To this day, he continues to dominate the K-State career record book as the program's all-time leader in career tackles (543), assisted tackles (343) and assists in a season (110). He averaged 17 tackles per game his senior year, and recorded at least 20 tackles in four games.

Following graduation in 1978, Spani was chosen in the third round of the NFL Draft by the Kansas City Chiefs. He went on to play all nine years of his career with the Chiefs and led the organization in tackles four straight seasons. He is the all-time leading tackler in Chiefs history with 999 career stops thanks to posting five 100-tackle campaigns. He was inducted into the Chiefs Ring of Honor in 2003.

CHARLES BACHMAN

Head Coach • 1920-27 • Class of 1978

Charles Bachman, who coached the K-State football team from 1920-27, was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1978. Bachman began his coaching career at Great Lakes Naval Station in 1918 and led that team to the 1918 Rose Bowl title and the national championship. He moved to Northwestern University in 1919 before joining the Wildcats in 1920. A member of the K-State Sports Hall of Fame (1995), Bachman's eight-year won-loss record at K-State was 33-23-9.

LYNN "PAPPY" WALDORF

Head Coach • 1934 • Class of 1966

Lynn O. "Pappy" Waldorf coached K-State to its first conference championship in 1934 while posting a 7-2-1 record in the Big Six Conference with wins over Oklahoma, Nebraska and Kansas. He was elected into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame in 1966. A graduate of Syracuse, his coaching career included stops at Oklahoma City University (13-5-3, 1926-27), as assistant at Kansas in 1928, at Oklahoma A&M (34-10-7, 1929-33), Kansas State (7-2-1, 1934), Northwestern (49-45-7, 1935-46) and California (67-32-4, 1947-56).

BILL SNYDER FAMILY STADIUM

Renamed in honor of legendary head football coach Bill Snyder by a proclamation of the Kansas Board of Regents on Nov. 16, 2005, Bill Snyder Family Stadium will host its 53rd season of Wildcat football this fall.

Originally named KSU Stadium, the facility was built at a cost of $1.6 million and financed from student fees, athletics gate receipts and contributions. The stadium opened its doors Sept. 21, 1968, with a 21-0 shutout of Colorado State. The original seating capacity was set at 35,000, and an expansion in the summer of 1970 added 4,000 permanent bleachers on the east side and 3,000 temporary bleachers on the west side.

Following the 1998 season, the addition of a deck and sky suites on the east side of the stadium increased capacity to more than 50,000. On Nov. 11, 2000, 53,811 fans witnessed

Kansas State's 29-28 win over Nebraska. It remains the largest crowd ever to witness a sporting event in the state of Kansas.

A complete teardown and rebuild of the Vanier Family Football Complex, the installation of new video and message boards, in addition to an enhanced sound system and the implementation of public WiFi are some of the most recent additions to Bill Snyder Family Stadium since 2015.

Prior to the 2018 season, Kansas State was an innovator on the playing surface scene as Bill Snyder Family Stadium became the first Division I football venue in the United States to install the latest artificial turf product from AstroTurf – RootZone Trionic 3D.

The following is a rundown of the other facelifts that have been added during the 53-year history of the stadium:

1970: A statewide spring fund-raising drive raised $250,000 for the installation of AstroTurf, replacing the original natural grass.

1972: The office/dressing room complex at the north end of the stadium was added. It housed all the K-State football offices and has dressing facilities for the Wildcats and their opponents.

1980: New artificial turf was installed prior to the season.

1983: Permanent stadium lights were added allowing the Wildcats to play night games.

1987: An addition to the office/dressing room complex was made in the summer of 1987, which provided more dressing and training room facilities.

1989-1992: A $2 million renovation project was undertaken to revamp the entire football complex. The result was one of the most spectacular football complexes in the country, complete with plush locker rooms, a 6,500-square foot weight room, state of the art classrooms equipped with the latest video equipment, a training room, a players' lounge and the picturesque Big Eight Room. The structure carried the title "Vanier Football Complex" in honor of the Vanier family of Brookville, Kansas.

1991: New AstroTurf was laid down prior to the 1991 season, and the field was named "Wagner Field" in honor of Dave and Carol Wagner of Dodge City.

1993: K-State put the finishing touches on its facility improvements with a $3.3 million five-level press box, including suites, and a $2.2 million indoor facility.

1996: The $1 million Academic Learning Center became a part of the Vanier Complex, hosting study facilities for all K-State student-athletes. A $2.6 million project added a 20x26 foot JumboTron, new scoreboards and marquis message board.

1999: Following the 1998 season, the facility underwent a $12.8 million expansion project. An additional 8,000 permanent seats were added, including a club seating area and 31 additional sky suites. The project raised the total capacity of KSU Stadium to over 50,000 with temporary seating.

STEVE & KAY THEEDE CLUB LEVEL

2002: A new FieldTurf playing surface was installed. The $850,000 project was completed in late May of 2002 and featured an innovative sand and rubber infill mixture and is the newest technology in competitive field products.

2003-07: The Vanier Football Complex received a complete makeover that included a new training facility, weight room, equipment room, coaches' offices, meeting rooms, locker room and permanent seating in the north end zone.

2006: New video and message boards were installed at the north and south ends of Bill Snyder Family Stadium at a cost of $1.7 million. The south end of the stadium received a fully integrated ProStar VideoPlus display system that measures 23' X 61'.

2007: The seating in the lower bowl of Bill Snyder Family Stadium was completely upgraded, including new chairbacks below the press box on the west side of the stadium and aluminum benches throughout the balance of the lower bowl. A new stadium sound system was also installed.

2011: Phase I of the Bill Snyder Family Stadium master renovation plan began. A new AstroTurf Gameday Grass 3D infill playing surface was installed as well as construction of additional restroom facilities on the east side view level of the stadium.

2012: Construction began on Phase II of the Bill Snyder Family Stadium master plan – the West Stadium Center. The new $75 million WSC includes new amenities for all fans at Bill Snyder Family Stadium. New concessions, restrooms, press level, suites, club and loge seating and ticket offices replaced the facilities on the west side. Additionally, a new Team Fan Store and Hall of Honor was included on the main Concourse Level.

2013: Construction on Phase II of the Bill Snyder Family Stadium master plan – West Stadium Center completed in time for the start of the season.

2014: Construction began on Phase III of the Bill Snyder Family Stadium master plan – the new Vanier Football Complex – following the completion of the season.

2015: Construction on Phase III of the Bill Snyder Family Stadium master plan – the new $65 million Vanier Football Complex – completed in time for the season.

2016: Phase IIIB of the Bill Snyder Family Stadium master plan, which features a new video board, showcase stage for the marching band and visiting locker room, was completed in time for the season.

2018: K-State replaced its playing surface as it installed AstroTurf's newest product – RootZone Trionic 3D – becoming the first Division I football program in the country to install the product. Additionally, the east side club was renovated.

2020: Construction on the South End Zone project began. In time for the 2020 season were two new video boards in the southeast and southwest corner to mirror those in the north end.

2021: The Shamrock Zone in the south end zone was completed and transformed the south concourse by providing a completely covered walkway area with concessions for general seating in the south end zone. Above, suites, loge boxes and a club area services both football and basketball.

2022: The new Shamrock Practice Facility will be completed during the season. Located on the east side of Bill Snyder Family Stadium, the facility will help the program save time from meetings straight to the practice field and will provide ample space for full team and positional work.

Note: Prior to the opening of Bill Snyder Family Stadium, the Wildcats played in Memorial Stadium, which opened in 1924 and still stands on the main campus.

K-STATE SONGS

The Alma Mater was selected as a result of a 1903 campus contest. H.W. Jones ('88) was responsible for K-State's prized result. Jones' original work was four stanzas including the chorus. His version has been slightly altered over the years to include just two stanzas and the changing of the words from Kansas State Agricultural College to Kansas State University.

Alma Mater

"I know a spot that I love full well, 'Tis not in forest nor yet in dell, ever it holds me with magic spell, I think of thee Alma Mater.

"K-S-U, we'll carry the banner high, K-S-U long, long may thy colors fly. Loyal to thee thy children shall swell the cry.

"Hail, Hail, Hail Alma Mater."

Wildcat Victory

"Fight you K-State Wildcats. For Alma Mater fight-fight-fight.

"Glory in the combat for the purple and white. Faithful to our colors, we shall ever be, fighting ever fighting for a Wildcat Victory!"

WABASH CANNONBALL

Everyone knows that familiar tune Wabash Cannonball. In fact, Wabash and K-State are almost synonymous. What many people do not know is how the song became an integral part of K-State athletics. In the fall of 1968, the department of music burnt down. Every piece of music in the building was destroyed. The only thing that was salvaged was what was in the band director's brief case. That included a piece of music titled the Wabash Cannonball. With an upcoming basketball game and no music, that left only one thing to do. The band members played the song loud and often. A song that originally had no connection to K-State has become a second fight song.

GOOD FOR A WILDCAT...

It was 1993 and the first year of the new $3.3 million press box. K-State's public-address announcer began what would become a K-State tradition. After a Wildcat first down, he would say, "Good for a Wildcat first down." Throughout the 1993 season, the P.A. announcer did this ritual alone. However, at the beginning of the 1994 season the crowd started to join in on the catchy phrase and began to shout it with him. Now, with the addition of the first down and touchdown arm motions, K-State's P.A. announcer no longer even needs to finish the phrase as the Wildcat fans finish it for him.

RING OF HONOR

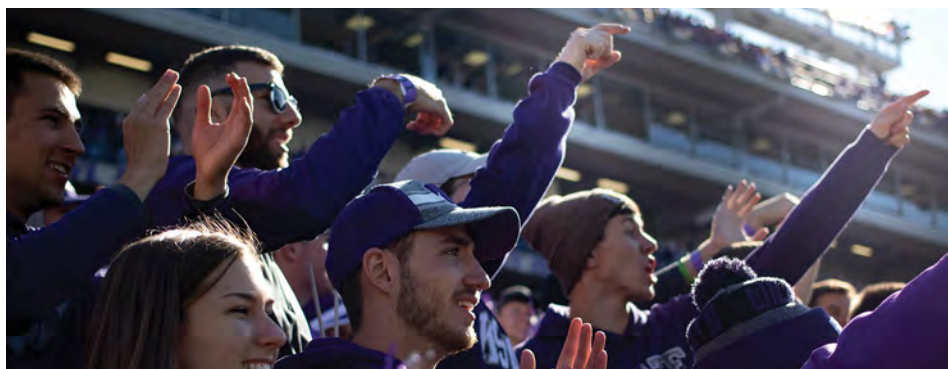

K-State started a new tradition in 2002, as the football program announced the inaugural Ring of Honor Class. The distinction is designed to recognize those in the football program who have distinguished themselves on and off the field. Among the criteria considered is graduation from Kansas State with a student-athlete having been out of school for at least five years, quality of character, whether the person is an excellent representative of K-State and whether a person has achieved performance that warrants consensus All-America level status at K-State.

The inaugural induction class of 2002 included six members, while four members were added in both 2008 and 2015, bringing the total number to 14 players. The names of the players are displayed on the east side upper deck and on a unique ring display in the West Stadium Center concourse.

The entire list of players in the Ring of Honor can be found on page 192.

HARLEY DAY

A creation of former athletic director Max Urlick, Harley Day, is one of the most popular days of the year for Wildcat fans. Led by Willie Wildcat, Harley Day participants, with their engines blaring, take the short ride around the playing surface of Bill Snyder Family Stadium, where they are greeted by a boisterous crowd.

HAROLD ROBINSON

A Manhattan native made then-Big Seven Conference (now Big 12 Conference) history as Harold Robinson, a middle linebacker-turned-center for Kansas State, became the first Black student-athlete in the Big Seven Conference to be awarded an athletic scholarship in any sport. Not only that, Robinson went on to earn All-Big Seven honors following the 1950 season.

While his teammates stayed in hotels during away games, Robinson often was forced to stay in private homes. He only missed one game while at Kansas State as Memphis State did not allow Blacks in the stadium, much less a player.

Robinson recalled that then-coach Ralph Graham welcomed him as he had coached Black players earlier in his career at Wichita State.

"People have to give him credit for letting Black players on the team," Robinson told the K-State Collegian in 2003. "Jackie Robinson had Branch Rickey who brought him into Major League Baseball. If it wasn't for Ralph Graham, I wouldn't have been playing at K-State."

After Robinson made the K-State football team, Jackie Robinson — who broke baseball's racial color barrier two years earlier in 1947 — wrote Harold Robinson a letter of congratulations.

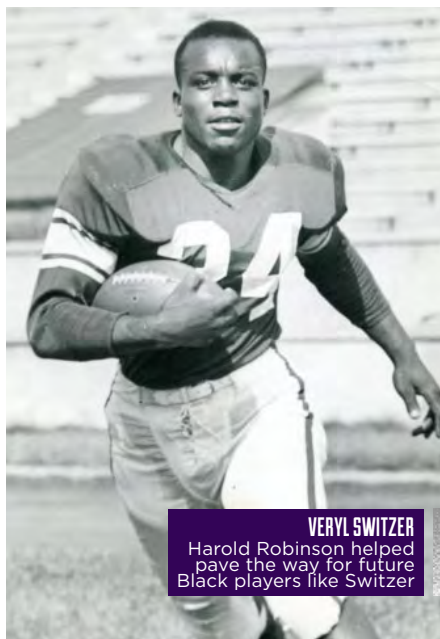

"He didn't know my address, so he just sent it to K-State Athletics," Robinson said.

Robinson was childhood friends in Manhattan with Earl Woods — the father of legendary golfer Tiger Woods — who went on to become the first Black baseball player in the Big Seven Conference in 1952.

Robinson opened the door for future Kansas State stars that include, in addition to Woods, Veryl Switzer (football), Gene Wilson (men's basketball) and Don Harris (tennis). Harold won the respect of opponents and fans despite the prevalent racial tension during his playing days and earned first team All-Big Seven honors in 1950 as a center.

After K-State, Robinson went on to serve during the Korean War, earning a purple heart. He passed away in May 2006 and is buried in Manhattan.

KANSAS STATE UNIVERSITY

HALE LIBRARY

MULTICULTURAL CENTER

K-State was established in 1863 as the nation's first operational land-grant university. As such, the university's mission has always been rooted in the principles set forth in the Morrill Act: to provide teaching, research and service to the citizens of Kansas and beyond. K-State is governed by the Kansas Board of Regents.

Located in central Manhattan, the main campus encompasses more than 2,320 acres, including agricultural and research facilities. The campus is known for its historic limestone buildings. This classic college town of more than 56,000 residents is growing steadily, attracting local and national businesses.

About Our Campuses

Manhattan is 125 miles west of Kansas City in the rolling Flint Hills of northeast Kansas. One hour west, in Salina, is the Kansas State University Salina Aerospace and Technology Campus which is known for its educational focus on experiential learning, professional pilot program and its renowned unmanned aircraft systems programs.

K-State Olathe, in the Kansas City metro area, offers digital skills bootcamps, including cybersecurity and digital marketing. A range of professional development workshops related to the animal health industry also are offered. In addition, the campus offers academic programs that include a bachelor's degree completion program in hospitality management and master's and doctoral degrees for professionals seeking career advancement in a variety of science-based fields.

K-State Online, home to 100-plus online and distance programs, is your connection to education that puts you on a path to amplify your potential. Professional development workshops and enrichment programs are also offered through this campus.

K-State Research and Extension offers numerous extension centers, offices and other facilities in every county in Kansas, as well as in Nebraska.

K-State is launching a new strategic initiative to help people and businesses in Kansas. The university's Economic Prosperity Plan adds thousands of jobs and billions of dollars into the Kansas economy by leveraging K-State's strengths in four key areas: food and agriculture systems innovation; digital agriculture and advanced analytics; biosecurity and biodefense; and extension and outreach.

Student Achievement

K-State students have an outstanding record when it comes to winning national competitions. The Wildcat Wind Power Team won the U.S. Department of Energy's 2022 Collegiate Wind Competition, and K-Staters have placed in the top five in areas like robotics, debate, forensics, aviation, construction science, architecture, engineering, leadership and more.

ACADEMIC RECOGNITION

- A recent Wall Street Journal study found that K-State is one of the best schools in the nation for increasing students' critical thinking, reasoning and problem-solving skills.
- The Association of Public and Land-Grant Universities designated K-State as an Innovation and Economic Prosperity University.
- The College of Business Administration's sales program is one of the best in the nation, according to the Sales Education Foundation. Additionally, the college was ranked among the best undergraduate business schools in the nation by Bloomberg Businessweek.
- The university was named one of the best colleges in the nation for agriculture by Schools.com. Additionally, Newsweek named the College of Education one of the nation's Great Teaching Schools.
- The graduate-level landscape architecture and interior architecture programs offered by the College of Architecture, Planning & Design have ranked in the Top 10 in the nation in a survey by DesignIntelligence.
- K-State scholars continue to excel nationally in 2021-2022, earning Truman, Goldwater, Fulbright and Gilman scholarships, elite scholarships from the Department of Transportation and many more.
- K-State offers more than 250 undergraduate academic majors and programs, as well as nearly 200 doctoral, master's and graduate certificate programs.
- According to data from the Kansas Board of Regents, K-State has the highest retention and graduation rates in Kansas.

K-STATE OLATHE

University Research and Accolades

- Kansas State University was named the “Silicon Valley for biodefense” for its status as a national leader in animal health, biosciences and food safety research. K-State is home to premier research facilities such as the Biosecurity Research Institute and College of Veterinary Medicine complex. In addition, the Kansas Department of Agriculture offices are co-located at the university’s research park; and the National Bio and Agro-Defense Facility is being constructed adjacent to the Manhattan campus.
- K-State’s “highest research activity” classification is the highest level possible from the Carnegie Classifications of Institutions of Higher Education. The Carnegie Foundation named Kansas State University as one of 119 U.S. colleges and universities to receive the 2020 Carnegie Community Engagement Classification for the university’s commitment to community engagement. K-State is one of 75 institutions to be reclassified by the Carnegie Foundation this year.

BUILDING THE FUTURE

- The Morris Family Multicultural Center opened its doors to students in fall 2020. Designed as a hub for intercultural learning and enrichment at the university, the center is for all students and offers space for gathering, performances, groups and support.
- The renovation of Hale Library is complete and features upgrades and enhancements throughout the building, including the addition of a new learning commons, more study spaces and more collaborative learning spaces.
- The McCain Auditorium expansion project enhances K-State’s performing arts facility with an updated lobby featuring new dedicated concessions and merchandising areas, a concierge station, a new box office and much more.
- Wefald Hall, a residence hall on the west side of campus, opened in fall 2016 housing 540 students. The connecting dining center serves 1,850 students and features world-renowned chefs.
- The 150,000-square-foot Business Building opened in fall 2016 featuring classroom space, financial trading rooms and areas for entrepreneurial development.
- A $40 million expansion added Engineering Hall to the engineering complex, which already includes Durland, Fielder and Rathbone halls.
- The Berney Family Welcome Center at WWI Memorial Stadium centralizes services for incoming students, serves as a campus gateway, and features interactive technology and customized information for visitors.
- K-State is home to more than 90 centers and institutes that produce groundbreaking research. This includes four Feed the Future Innovation Labs funded by the U.S. Agency for International Development.
- More than $54 million in scholarships is awarded to students each year.
- K-State is the No. 1 choice for Kansas high school seniors, and it pays dividends. Ninety-seven percent of recent bachelor’s degree graduates indicated they were employed or continuing their education.

Dr. Richard H. Linton serves as the 15th president of Kansas State University. He holds a bachelor's degree in biology, a master's degree in food science and a doctorate in food science, all from Virginia Tech University. He participated in the Food Systems Leadership Institute from 2009-2011 and completed the Harvard Graduate School's Institutional Educational Management Program in 2018.

Before coming to K-State in February 2022, Linton served as dean of the College of Agriculture and Life Sciences at North Carolina State University from 2012-2022, as department chair of food science and technology at The Ohio State University from 2011-2012, and as a faculty member of the department of food science at Purdue University from 1994-2011. While at Purdue, Linton also served as the founder and director of the Center for Food Safety Engineering and as the associate director of agricultural research programs.

As dean of the College of Agriculture and Life Sciences, or CALS, at NC State, Linton led a college of over 300 faculty, with more than 3,000 undergraduate students and 1,000 graduate students. Under his direction, the college developed a new strategic plan focused on building people, programs and partnerships. Collaboration with industry and government were critical to the mission of the college, and Linton's dedication was demonstrated through the NC Plant Sciences Initiative and the NC Food Processing and Manufacturing Initiative, two endeavors that have the potential to create jobs, find solutions to global challenges in agriculture and foster support for local growers. During his tenure at NC State, competitive research for CALS reached $100 million a year and his college raised $482 million for the NC State Capital Campaign.

Linton held many important leadership roles in addition to serving as dean. He continues to serve as a member of the Food and Drug Administration's Science Advisory Board, as well as the chair for the Binational — Israel/U.S. — Ag Research and Development Fund, a role to which he was appointed in 2018 by the U.S. secretary of agriculture. He also previously chaired the North Carolina Governor's Task Force on Food Manufacturing and the APLU-Healthy Food Systems, Healthy People Steering Committee.

President Linton and his wife, Sally, an ADHD/executive function life coach, have two children: a daughter, Lily, and a son, Chris.

2017-22 (Kansas State) Director of Athletics

Gene Taylor, who in June 2020 was named the eighth-best Athletic Director among FBS programs by Stadium, was named the Director of Athletics at K-State in April 2017. During his tenure K-State has seen the football program qualify for three bowls, the men's basketball team win a Big 12 Championship, earn an Elite 8 appearance and advance to two NCAA tournaments and the women's track and field team win back-to-back Big 12 Outdoor championships.

Additionally, Taylor and staff have fundraised and begun to implement a department-wide facility master plan that will benefit all Wildcat teams including wrapping up Building Champions, a department-record $105 million initiative focused on the Shamrock Zone, Morgan Family Arena, Olympic Training Center and the Shamrock Practice Facility.

Taylor has implemented a strategic plan for the department which places an emphasis on the student-athlete experience, while his leadership in navigating COVID-19, in addition to enhancing the department's already-strong diversity and inclusion program, has been well documented.

With the support of fans and donors, K-State Athletics has also continued to be financially self-sufficient and does not receive support from the university. In FY 2019, a year earlier than anticipated, the program ended the practice of receiving student privilege fees in support of the program. This move makes Taylor's program one of only a few across the country to operate with no direct or indirect university and student funding or state support.

In addition to achieving a budget surplus for the ninth, 10th and 11th straight years, the department also has seen fans and donors contributing at a record level as the Ahearn Fund eclipsed the annual $20 million mark for the first time in department history in FY22. Also, the Building Champions initiative eclipsed the $100 million mark this past year and set a new record for funds raised during a capital campaign. Total giving in FY22 was also on target to soar past the $56 million mark as of press time, which will also be a new record for total giving. FY19 also saw $44.4 million in total giving, which was the second-largest figure in department history and marked only the second time ever to eclipse the $40 million mark, while $18.3 million was designated for the department's annual fund. Fans also contributed in FY 2018 a total of $30.9 million, of which a then record $18.9 million was designated for the Ahearn Fund annual giving program surpassing its budgeted goal.

The 2020-21 season presented significant challenges for intercollegiate athletics departments across the nation due to the COVID pandemic, but Taylor's leadership kept the department operating in an efficient manner. In fact, K-State was one of very few programs in the Big 12 to not eliminate positions in the department during the pandemic.

Hiring and retaining top coaches is also a critical function of the program. Taylor hired Chris Klieman to replace hall of fame coach Bill Snyder after winning four national titles in five seasons at North Dakota State, and in his first three seasons has qualified for three bowl games while also knocking off Oklahoma (ranked No. 5 and No. 3) in back-to-back years. Taylor's hiring of Jerome Tang to lead the men's basketball program in April 2022 made national waves, while he has hired Jordan Smith to take over the tennis program and Pete Hughes in baseball, who took the Wildcats back to the Big 12 Championship in his first year on the job.

Graduating student-athletes remains the top priority for the department and academic success has continued under Taylor's guidance as K-State continues to rank among the top schools in the Big 12 in APR and graduation success rate.

As Athletics Director at North Dakota State, Taylor immediately spearheaded a comprehensive evaluation of the Bison athletic department in 2001, all while successfully guiding the athletics program through the unpredictable waters of reclassification to NCAA Division I from Division II and securing conference affiliations for all 16 sports. The Bison are currently members of The Summit League, Missouri Valley Football Conference and the Big 12 Conference (wrestling).

Taylor also played an instrumental part of forming the Great West Football Conference in February 2004, an affiliation that gave the Bison football program an immediate home in Division I.

The success of the football program is well documented, highlighted by three-straight FCS National Championships in 2011, 2012 and 2013 under head coach Craig Bohl as the Bison quickly became one of the most revered football programs in all levels of college sports.

In addition to football, the NDSU men's basketball, women's volleyball, softball and women's golf programs all regularly qualified for NCAA tournaments, highlighted by softball advancing to the 2009 Super Regional, while the Bison totaled 53 Summit League team championships since 2009 under Taylor's guidance in addition to 62 Academic All-Americans, three NCAA Woman of the Year national qualifiers, four NCAA Elite 89 selections and 20 NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship winners.

The NDSU athletics budget tripled from $5 million in Taylor's first year to $15 million, while the scholarship endowment grew to $11.2 million, and Team Makers booster club support tripled from $750,000 to $2.8 million.

In 2014, Taylor accepted the role of deputy athletics director at Iowa where he has been responsible for the administrative oversight of the department's day-to-day operations while also serving as the leading advisor to the Director of Athletics and the primary decision maker in his absence.

He also supervised and managed all the department's administrative units, capital projects as well as serving as the direct sport supervisor for field hockey, men's and women's tennis, men's and women's swimming and diving, women's soccer, baseball and wrestling. Taylor also had oversight of the football and men's and women's basketball programs daily operations, which included postseason and bowl travel coordination.

Twice Taylor has been recognized for his success by the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics. He was selected as the FCS Central Region AD of the Year in June 2008 and June 2012. Taylor received the Blue Key Honor Society Doctor of Service Award, one of the most prestigious honors an NDSU faculty member can be bestowed, in April 2012.

A student assistant to the associate athletics director in his undergraduate days at Arizona State University, Taylor arrived at NDSU after a 15-year stint at Navy (1986-2001) as an administrative assistant, assistant ticket manager, ticket manager, assistant athletic director for tickets and operations, and associate athletic director.

Taylor is a 1980 business management graduate of Arizona State, and he received his master's degree in sports administration in 1985 from St. Thomas University in Florida.

He worked in the ticket office at Southern Methodist University in 1985-86 before joining the Naval Academy. His tenure at Navy included serving as the commissioner of the five-team Collegiate Sprint Football League that includes Army, Navy, Penn, Princeton and Cornell.

Taylor and his wife, Cathy, have a daughter, Casey, and a son, Jared.

NATIONALLY RECOGNIZED

A four-time winner of the Super 11 Award – including each of the last three seasons – the K-State Athletics Communications Office has picked up several honors over the past 15-plus years. Honored by the Football Writers Association of America as one of the top 11 sports information departments in the Football Bowl Subdivision in 2015, 2019, 2020 and 2021, the K-State Athletics Communications Office has garnered 35 top-five national publication honors over the last 17 years from the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA). Among the honors include its 2015 football media guide as well as the 2017 and 2019 bowl guides judged as “Best in the Nation,” while the 2016 football game notes and the 2019 football yearbook were rated “Second in the Nation.”

Welcome to K-State! Thank you for your interest in Kansas State football. The K-State Athletics Communications Office has produced the 2022 media guide to assist in your coverage of the Wildcats. Please feel free to contact any member of our staff with questions, requests or concerns. We look forward to working with you throughout the season.

COVERING K-STATE

Weekly News Conference

Head coach Chris Klieman hosts a weekly news conference each Tuesday at the Vanier Family Football Complex beginning with lunch at 12 p.m. Klieman will address the media at 12:30 p.m., with requested players available from 1 to 2 p.m. To request players for the weekly news conference, media should contact Associate Athletics Director for Communications Ryan Lackey (rlackey@kstatesports.com) each Monday by noon. Quotes, video and audio from the news conference are available on www.k-statesports.com each Tuesday afternoon.

News Conference Video

Broadcast-quality video files for television newscasts of each weekly news conference are available for download on Tuesday afternoons. Contact the K-State Athletics Communications staff for FTP access instructions.

Other Availability

Chris Klieman: In addition to K-State's Tuesday news conference, head coach Chris Klieman is available to the media on the Big 12 Conference's teleconference, which is held at various times throughout the season. Coach Klieman is also available via telephone for out-of-town media outlets at a time to be determined. Please contact Kenny Lannou (klannou@kstatesports.com) for those opportunities.

Assistant Coaches: Coordinators will be available each Thursday at 2 p.m., inside the Steel & Pipe Team Theatre, while other assistant coaches will be made available throughout the year.

Players: All player interviews MUST be arranged through the K-State Athletics Communications Office. During the season, Wildcat players are available to the media at Tuesday news conferences. Every effort will be made to have player availability at a different time for those players who are not available on Tuesdays.

GAMEDAY INFO

Working Credentials

Media outlets interested in covering Kansas State football on either a season or individual-game basis are requested to submit all applications for credentials through the K-State Athletics Communications football credential application website. To access the website, please visit www.k-statesports.com/media. K-State is unable to process written requests for football credentials. Please be sure and review the department's credential policies on page 225. Prior approval of credentials does not guarantee a credential in 2022.

Because of inconsistent mail delivery service on tight deadlines, media passes will not be mailed. Passes may be picked up at a location to be determined by the K-State Athletics Communications Office. Individuals picking up credentials will be required to furnish positive identification. All credentials are non-transferable and are issued based on Kansas State's credential policy.

Admission to the press level is for working media only. Only those media with official K-State credentials will be admitted. Friends, spouses, children under the age of 16 and non-workers are not welcome in the press area.

Press Parking

Press parking is limited and will be issued upon request on a first-come, first-served basis as available. Contact the Kansas State Athletics Communications Office regarding details and directions to press parking areas.

Photographers

Only a limited amount of accredited photographers/videographers on assignment from recognized media outlets will be issued sideline credentials. All photographers must obtain and wear a K-State Athletics vest (available in the press box on gamedays) and a media pass to shoot inside Bill Snyder Family Stadium. NCAA rules limit shooting to outside the restraining line enclosing the playing field and outside the 20-yard lines (the team areas). Children under 16 years old are not permitted on the sideline.

Photographers are asked to stay behind the white dotted line on the field with priority given to individuals operating cameras and parabolic microphones for the television network broadcasting the game.

The designated photographer work space is on the field level of Bill Snyder Family Stadium, just inside the northeast (visiting team) tunnel. Tables, chairs, power strips and wireless internet are provided and the area may be used on a first-come, first-served basis.

Visiting Radio Stations

To inquire about access to Kansas State's existing radio courtesy lines, visiting radio stations should contact Ben Boyle, K-State Sports Network General Manager, at 785.532.2702. Only those stations recognized as the official originator for the visiting team will be afforded broadcast facilities. For national networks, a rights fee is charged. National networks are also required to protect the broadcast footprint of the K-State Sports Network. Broadcast facilities for national networks are available on a first-come, first-served basis.

Websites

K-State reserves the right to deny media credentials to any individual whose website is not affiliated with an official news-gathering organization or publication. Credentials will be issued to official online services of national, over-the-air or cable networks or established publications which are staffed by full-time employees whose primary function is to produce content from the game.

Credentials will not be granted to any online agency operating sites that are in any way affiliated with gambling.

Membership in a writer's association does not automatically qualify an agency for credentials.

Road Credentials

Obtaining media credentials for K-State road games is the sole responsibility of each media outlet. Credentials are granted at the discretion of the host institution. Please be specific when requesting the type of credential needed. Opponent SID email addresses are listed on pages 38-39.

MEDIA SERVICES

Weekly Release

The K-State Athletics Communications Office provides its weekly football release via email. Updated notes and statistics are posted on www.k-statesports.com Monday at noon in both text and PDF formats. To receive K-State's weekly notes package via email, please contact Ryan Lackey (rlackey@kstatesports.com).

Working Space

K-State provides work space for media outlets in the Athletics Communications Office following each Tuesday news conference. The office is located on the sixth level of the West Stadium Center at Bill Snyder Family Stadium and is fully equipped with wireless internet access. Telephone lines, a copier and archived materials are also available to working media members.

Dev Nelson Press Level

The Dev Nelson Press Level includes a working area for print media, home and visiting radio networks, home and visiting coaches' booths, opposing athletics director booth, TV booth, radio spots, coaches' video and a photo deck.

Press Box Services

Packets including statistics, pregame notes and flipcards are available for media in the press box prior to each game. Quarter, halftime and final statistics, a running play-by-play and postgame quotes from coaches and players of both teams will be emailed. Live running statistics are also available on TVs throughout the press box and on the Internet at kstate.statbroadcast.com during the game. Final statistics, notes and quotes will be made available to the media following the game and are posted on the official K-State Athletics website shortly after the conclusion of each contest. All in-game statistics and postgame materials will be emailed unless otherwise requested.

Internet Access

The Dev Nelson Press Level is equipped with high-speed wireless Internet. Please contact a member of the K-State Athletics Communications Office for access and usage instructions. Wireless internet credentials are for media only and are not to be distributed to the general public.

Postgame Policy

Kansas State's locker room is closed. Media in the press box will be asked to submit a list of player requests to Ryan Lackey at the start of the fourth quarter. Coach Klieman and requested players will be available in the Steel & Pipe Team Theater on the third floor of the Vanier Family Football Complex following a brief cooling off period.

Postgame news conferences for visiting teams will take place in the designated visiting team interview area, which is accessible through the visiting team tunnel in the northeast corner of the stadium.

Postgame Highlights

The Kansas State Athletics Department produces broadcast-quality files of highlights for use in newscasts following all non-televvised home games. Please contact the K-State Athletics Communications Office or K-StateHD.TV staff for FTP access instructions and information.

Media Meals

A pregame meal is served in the Dev Nelson Press Level two hours prior to each game. The meal is reserved for working members of the media with proper credentials. Milk and ice cream are also provided for all games courtesy of Hiland Dairy of Manhattan.

K-STATE CREDENTIAL POLICY

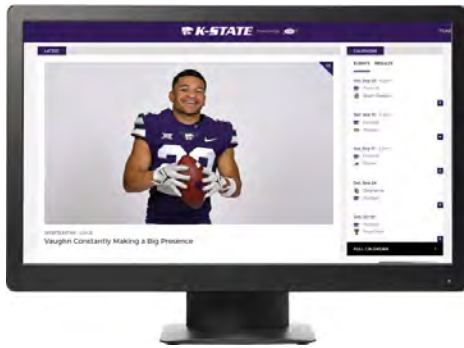

Credentials and working space for media members are issued at the sole and exclusive discretion of the Kansas State Athletics Communications Office based on the following priorities and guidelines.

1. Originating radio and television personnel involved in a live broadcast.
2. Daily newspapers and websites regularly covering Kansas State University, the current-game opponent or another Big 12 school. Wire services, regional and national publications are also afforded this priority.
3. Officially recognized Kansas State University student publications or electronic media outlets.
4. Non-originating radio and television personnel producing reports on the game. Local radio stations with a full-time sports director conducting a regular sports show will receive top consideration.
5. Non-daily newspapers reporting on the game.

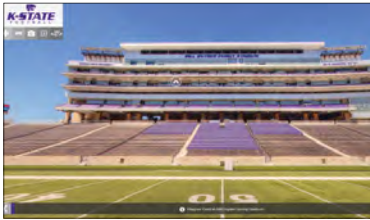

These guidelines were developed prior to July 1, 2021 and are subject to change due to any alterations in city, county, University or Big 12 Conference policy.

OTHER CREDENTIAL GUIDELINES

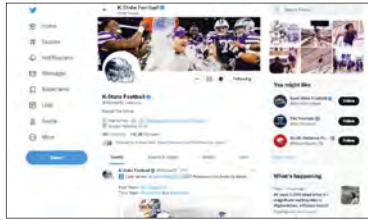

1. With the exception of media covering Kansas State daily, all passes are issued on a game-by-game basis with consideration of available working space.
2. Passes are non-transferable and are subject to immediate revocation if transferred to non-working members of a media outlet.
3. Kansas State University reserves the right to deny media credentials to any individual whose website is not recognized as a legitimate media organization.
4. All persons picking up credentials will be required to furnish positive identification. All credentials are non-transferable.
5. Spouses, dates, non-workers and anyone under 16 years of age are not permitted in the working press area.
6. Restrictions have been made on the usage of internet video of K-State Athletic events. Highlights of game action and/or press conferences from K-State events are limited to and cannot exceed three (3) minutes in length per event.
7. Each outlet requesting credentials will be permitted a MAXIMUM of TWO "on-field" passes which can be designated for still photography or video use. These two passes MUST be utilized in a working fashion and each user must check out a PHOTO VEST from the press level (which must be worn on the field at all times).

WYATT THOMPSON

Voice of the Wildcats

A six-time Kansas Sportscaster of the Year – including four of the last five years – and 2011 recipient of the Hod Hummiston Award, play-by-play announcer Wyatt Thompson serves as the anchor of the K-State Sports Network and returns for his 21th season behind the mic as “Voice of the Wildcats.”

K-State’s Senior Director of Sportscasting, Thompson also serves as host of the Chris Klieman and Jerome Tang shows on both television and radio. In addition, he is heavily involved in various Catbacker Club, alumni and athletic department functions, frequently serving as a keynote speaker.

Thompson came to K-State from Colorado State, where he was the play-by-play voice for the Rams’ football and men’s basketball teams for five years. An accomplished broadcaster, he won the Colorado Broadcasting Association award for best play-by-play in 2000. In addition to his duties at CSU, he was also a sports reporter for Clear Channel Denver, the “Countdown to Kickoff” host for the Denver Broncos on KOA Radio and hosted the “Zone Sports Insiders” show on 760 The Zone in Denver.

Thompson started his broadcasting career in 1976 as a sportscaster for various high schools, colleges and universities in Kansas, spending time at stations in Hays and Goodland. He was recognized with the Kansas Association of Broadcasters Play-by-Play Award in 1982 and the Oscar Stauffer Sportscaster of the Year Award in 1989. He and his wife Karen reside in Manhattan.

STAN WEBER

Analyst

Providing the color analysis is former Kansas State quarterback Stan Weber. Now in his 36th year in the booth and having called 427-consecutive games entering 2022, Weber passed legendary broadcaster Dev Nelson, who called games for 25 years, for the longest tenure of a K-State radio broadcaster.

In addition to these duties, Weber provides color commentary for men’s basketball games on the K-State Sports Network as well as Big 12 Now on ESPN+ broadcasts.

A native of Goddard, Kansas, he served as captain of the 1984 team and led the Wildcats in rushing while earning Academic All-American honors.

Weber, who graduated magna cum laude, received his bachelor’s and master’s degrees in accountancy from Kansas State and currently serves as President & CEO of Tower Properties in addition to his broadcast duties. Weber was also a 2009 inductee into the K-State Accounting Hall of Fame, a 2014 inductee into the Kansas Shrine Bowl Hall of Fame, and a 2019 inductee into the Goddard Public Schools Hall of Fame.

Weber and his wife, Nancy (Freshnock), a former K-State cheerleader, have four children – Brittani, Stanton, McKenzi and Landry. Stanton played five years on the K-State football team and served as the 2015 special teams captain, while he is currently the Special Teams Analyst at South Carolina. Landry also played five seasons as a wide receiver for the Wildcats, and McKenzie played volleyball at K-State. The Webers reside in Lenexa, Kansas.

MATT WALTERS

Sideline Reporter, Pregame and Postgame Host

Matt Walters is in his 18th year as the Wildcats’ sideline reporter and host of the network’s pre- and postgame show. The 2013 Kansas Sportscaster of the Year is also a 28-year veteran of K-State baseball broadcasts, while he also previously hosted the popular ‘Powercat Gameday’ football pregame show for 20 years on KMAN and KMKF. Walters also serves as an analyst for a portion of the men’s basketball broadcasts on the K-State Sports Network as well as play-by-play duties for women’s basketball.

A 1992 graduate of Kansas State and native of Russell, Kansas, Walters spent 20 years at Manhattan Broadcasting before going to work for Manhattan’s Commerce Bank in 2014 as a Vice President/Commercial Product Specialist.

In addition to being named the Kansas Sportscaster of the Year by the National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association (NSSA) in 2013, Walters also received the prestigious Oscar Stauffer Sportscaster of the Year in 2005. He and his wife, Janelle, and their son, Jaydon, live near St. George.

K-STATE SPORTS NETWORK

Wildcat football is on the air! The 2022 football season marks the 18th year of the K-State Sports Network, a joint venture of Kansas State Athletics and Learfield IMG College.

Chris Klieman Radio Show

Affiliates on the K-State Sports Network carry the Chris Klieman Show throughout the season. The show originates from Powercat Sports Grill in Manhattan from 7 p.m. to 8 p.m. during the season.
